ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AT THE POST-OFFICE AT FORT TOTTEN. N. DAK.

The following letter arrived too late to be read to the Indians at the Standing Rock Congress, so we publish it here.

MARQUETTE LEAGUE
New York, June 20, 1910.
My dear Father Ketcham:

We deeply regret that it will be impossible to send a representative of the Marquette League to the Catholic Sioux Congress which will be held this year at Fort Yates, N. Dak.; we, therefore, beg that you will be the bearer of our message to these Catholic Indians in whom we are so greatly interested.

We rejoice at the honor conferred upon them by the presence of the Apostolic Delegate and so many Bishops and greatly regret that none of their friends among the members of the Marquette League can be present on this great occasion.

With renewed good wishes for the success of this congress and expressions of good will to these our Catholic Indian brethren, we remain, Yours very sincerely,
The directors of the Marquette League.

NORTH DAKOTA.

4,000 Indians at Congress.
From The North-Western Chronicle.

The greatest gathering of Catholic Indians ever held in America, took place on June 25, 26, 27 and 28, at Fort Yates, Standing Rock Indian Reservation, N. D. The occasion while being the largest was also made notable by the presence of the Papal Delegate, who conveyed the congress the special blessing of His Holiness, Pope Pius X. This was the first Indian Congress ever attended by Monsignor Diomede Falconio. At the congress which was made up of about 4,000 delegates, representing fifty two thousand Indians.

The Indians participating were mostly Sioux, such as Yanktonais, Blackfeet, Hunkpapas, Oglalas, etc., of Fort Totten, Standing Rock, Pine Ridge, Rosebud, Cheyenne River Reservations, Rees, Gros Ventres. Mandans from Fort Berthold; Chippewas from Minnesota and Turtle Mountains.

Besides the Papal Delegate were present Bishop Wehrle, of Bismarck, Bishop Busch of Lead, S. D.; Rev. W. H. Ketcham, director of the Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions, Washington, D. C.; Father Metcalf, of Boston, and missionary priests from the

The congress opened on Saturday morning with a parade in which the Indians took part. At the head of the procession was a band. Following this came a Platoon of Indian police, then the various societies, C. O. F. St. Mary's and St. Joseph's and those composed of the Indian school children. Following were the visiting clergy, mostly Indian missionaries. At the school house the Papal Delegate with bishops and attendants joined in and marched to the little church where Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by Bishop Wehrle of Bismarck. He was assisted by Father Westropp as deacon, and Father Heinrichs as subdeacon. Father Bernard was assistant priest. The papal delegate, Bishop Busch and Father Metcalf occupied seats of honor in the sanctuary. The masters of ceremony were Very Rev Martin Kenel and Rev. Ambrose Bucher. The sermon was preached by Rev. Jerome Hunt, O. S. B. the oldest Indian missionary in the Dakotas.

In the evening a meeting of the Indians was held on the banks of the river and addresses delivered in Indian by Standing Soldier, John Strait and Little Fish. The addresses were translated for the benefit of the English visitors.

Bishop Busch was the celebrant of Pontifical High Mass on Sunday morning. Very Rev. Martin Kenel preached in the Sioux and English languages. After Mass Bishop Wehrle administered the sacrament of confirmation to ninety children and adults. Dinner was served in the school house by the sisters.

In the evening the congress was called and opened by prayer in Sioux. His excellency, D. Falconio had spoken the day before, announcing the kindly message of the Holy Father. His words were received with great enthusiasm, and the voices expressed thanks, delight and satisfaction.

The speakers of Sunday evening were Thomas White Mouse, Marcellus Red Tomahawk Benedict Long Soldier, Goodbear of Fort Berthold; Wounded Face, a Mandan Indian; Joseph Horncloud of Rosebud, Butcher, a Ree— testified in eloquent words, their loyalty to church and government, especially did they appreciate the school education of their children under the sweet influence of good and zealous missionaries and teachers. Bishops Wehrle and Busch assured the Indians of their love for them and their readiness to supply them always with good priests and proper care of souls.

Father Ketcham, Father Metcalf, Col. McLaughlin and Major Belden were among the others who spoke. The Papal Delegate closed the meeting with the Papal Benediction.

On Monday morning Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Rev. W. H. Ketcham. He was assisted by Father Loftus, of Sisseton reservation, and Father Vogel of Cheyenne River reservation. Monsignor Falconio occupied the throne and Father Westropp, S. J. preached the sermon.

On Monday evening the Indian women came to the gathering and presented the visitors with souvenirs.

On Tuesday a solemn High Mass was celebrated by Rev. F. Metcalf of Boston for the departed members of St. Joseph's and St. Mary's Societies.

On Wednesday the Congress was closed by a Pontifical High Mass celebrated by Abbot Frowin of Missouri, this being the 29th anniversary of his benediction as Abbot.
