INTRODUCTORY SENTENCES.

COME, ye children, hearken unto me:
I will teach you the fear of Jehovah.
Know ye that Jehovah, he is God:
It is he that hath made us, and we are his;
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
And into his courts with praise:
Give thanks unto him and bless his name.
For Jehovah is good; his loving-kindness endureth forever,
And his faithfulness unto all generations.
Jehovah is good to all;
And his tender mercies are over all his works.

RESPONSIVE READING.

OH, that men would praise Jehovah for his loving-kindness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men!
For he satisfieth the longing soul,
And the hungry soul he filleth with good.
Jehovah executeth righteous acts,
And judgments for all that are oppressed.
He turneth rivers into a wilderness,
And watersprings into a thirsty ground.
Ascribe unto Jehovah the glory due unto his name;
Worship Jehovah in holy array.
It is a good thing to give thanks unto Jehovah,
And to sing praises unto thy name, O most High;
To show forth thy loving-kindness in the morning,
And thy faithfulness every night.
Oh, magnify Jehovah with me,
And let us exalt his name together.

SERVICES.

PRAYER.

O THOU that hearest prayer, and knowest the secrets of every heart, we adore thee as the only living and true God, the Father of all mankind. Thou hast created the heavens and the earth, according to thy pleasure, and filled the universe with witnesses of thy wisdom and power. All that thou hast made reflects thy glory, and magnifies thy name. Thou hast created us in the image of thyself, and called us by the tender name of children. And we would render unto thee some worthy offering of praise for thy love and kindness toward us. Day by day thou hast provided for our wants, and crowned us with thy richest favors. Thou art the light of our pathway, and the joy of our souls. Make us more worthy of thy love, more worthy to be called thy children. Let thy blessing rest upon our school, and thy Spirit upon all our hearts. Give unto each of us wisdom from on high, to guide us in all the ways of life, and grant us thy salvation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

www.libtool.org INTRODUCTORY SENTENCES.

OH come, let us worship and bow down;
Let us kneel before Jehovah our Maker.
Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving;
Let us make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.
I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,
Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.
For Jehovah God is a sun and a shield:
Jehovah will give grace and glory;
No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

RESPONSIVE READING.

WHO shall ascend into the hill of Jehovah?
And who shall stand in his holy place?
He that hath clean hands and a pure heart.
He shall receive a blessing from Jehovah,
And righteousness from the God of his Salvation.
Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
And be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors:
Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
And the King of Glory will come in.
Who is this King of Glory?
Jehovah of hosts,
He is the King of Glory.
I will extol thee, my God, O King;
And I will bless thy name forever and ever.
Every day will I bless thee;
And I will praise thy name forever and ever.
Oh satisfy us in the morning with thy loving-kindness,
That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

PRAYER.

OUR Father who art in heaven, — the source of life and the giver of all good: Thou hast taught us to look up to thee in prayer, and to worship thee in spirit and in truth. Thou hast revealed thyself to us as our best and dearest friend, watching over us by day, and protecting us by night. Thou hast taught us to put all our trust in thee, for thou wilt never leave us nor forsake us. We thank thee that we are the children of thy love; that thou art leading us through all the changing scenes of life, and that wherever we may be, or whatever may befall us, we can say, from the fulness of our confidence and trust, thou doest all things well. Help us, our Father, to worship thee aright, — to open our hearts before thee in gratitude and praise. Give unto each of us that purity of heart which shall enable us to see thee in all the ways of life. Make us true and faithful followers of thy dear Son. Let thy blessing rest upon us while we are here together, and thy Spirit go with us, to guide us in the duties of the week before us; and to thy name be all praise and glory, forever. Amen.

ONE thing have I asked of Jehovah, that will I seek after;
That I may dwell in the house of Jehovah all the days of my life,
To behold the beauty of Jehovah,
And to inquire in his temple.
For in the day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion;
In the covert of his tabernacle will he hide me;
He will lift me upon a rock.
When thou saidest, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee,
Thy face, Jehovah, will I seek.
And my tongue shall talk of thy righteousness
And of thy praise all the day long.

RESPONSIVE READING.

PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion;
And unto thee shall the vow be performed.
O thou that hearest prayer,
Unto thee shall all flesh come.
Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee,
That he may dwell in thy courts:
We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house,
Thy holy temple.
Oh bless our God, ye people,
And make the voice of his praise to be heard;
Who holdeth our soul in life,
And suffereth not our feet to be moved.
I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the peoples:
I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.
Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens;
Let thy glory be above all the earth.

PRAYER.

WE render thanks to thee, O God of heaven and earth, for all thy goodness to us, and for all the testimonies of thy love. We thank thee for this holy day, and all the sacred memories it awakens in our hearts. May it be to us a day of rest, of sweet communion with each other and with thee. May we think of him whose resurrection from the dead has made this a sacred day to every Christian heart. And

JEHOVAH is my light and my salvation;
Whom shall I fear?
Jehovah is the strength of my life;
Of whom shall I be afraid?
Jehovah is my strength and my shield;
My heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped:
Therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth;
And with my song will I praise him.
Though a host should encamp against me,
My heart shall not fear:
Though war should rise against me,
Even then will I be confident.
Jehovah redeemeth the soul of his servants;
And none of them who take refuge in him shall be condemned.

RESPONSIVE READING.

JEHOVAH is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He guideth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies:
Thou hast anointed my head with oil;
My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and loving-kindness shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of Jehovah forever.
From the end of the earth will I call unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed:
Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

We draw near to thee in prayer, with the full assurance of faith that thou wilt accept our feeble offering, and give us answers of peace. Enable us to realize, O our Father, how great is our indebtedness to thee for the gifts of life and health; for friendship and for friends; for the Bible, with its promises and hopes, and for Jesus Christ, our Master. What can we render unto thee, O God, for all these high and precious gifts? Thou knowest how poor and weak we are, and that all we can give is as nothing before thee. Yet thou hast taught us that thou wilt not refuse the sincere worship of the feeblest heart. May this be our offering to-day, and may we feel that we have found acceptance with thee. Help us to learn and do thy will. Forgive us all our sins, and keep us ever in thy love, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

GREAT is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised,
In the city of our God, in his holy mountain.
Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth,
Is mount Zion, on the sides of the north,
The city of the great King.
God hath made himself known in her palaces for a refuge.
Exalt ye Jehovah our God,
And worship at his holy hill;
For Jehovah our God is holy.
God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship in spirit and truth.

RESPONSIVE READING.

THE heavens declare the glory of God;
And the firmament showeth his handiwork.
Day unto day uttereth speech,
And night unto night showeth knowledge.
There is no speech nor language;
Their voice is not heard.
Their line is gone out through all the earth;
And their words to the end of the world.
In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,
Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
And rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course.
His going forth is from the ends of the heavens,
And his circuit unto the ends of it;
And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.
The law of Jehovah is perfect, restoring the soul:
The testimony of Jehovah is sure, making wise the simple.
The precepts of Jehovah are right, rejoicing the heart:
The commandment of Jehovah is pure, enlightening the eyes.
The fear of Jehovah is clean, enduring forever:
The ordinances of Jehovah are true and righteous altogether.

PRAYER.

But thou givest to all, life, and breath, and all things, and hast made of one blood all nations of men, to dwell on all the face of the earth. Grant us to seek thee, to feel after thee, and find thee; and may we ever remember that thou art not far from every one of us, for in thee we live, and move, and have our being. INTRODUCTORY SENTENCES.

I LOVE Jehovah, because he heareth
My voice and my supplications.
Because he hath inclined his ear unto me,
Therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.
Gracious is Jehovah, and righteous;
Yea, our God is merciful.
Return unto thy rest, O my soul;
For Jehovah hath dealt bountifully with thee.
God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish but have eternal life.

RESPONSIVE READING.

BLESS Jehovah, O my soul;
And all that is within me bless his holy name.
Bless Jehovah, O my soul,
And forget not all his benefits.
Jehovah is merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness.
For as the heavens are high above the earth,
So great is his loving-kindness toward them that fear him.
As far as the east is from the west,
So far hath he removed our transgressions from us.
Like as a father pitieth his children,
So Jehovah pitieth them that fear him.
Jehovah hath established his throne in the heavens;
And his kingdom ruleth over all.
His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And his dominion endureth throughout all generations.
Oh give thanks unto Jehovah; for he is good;
For his loving-kindness endureth forever.

PRAYER.

O GOD, our heavenly Father, we come confidently and trustingly to thee, because we know that thou art good. and as boundless as thy presence, so boundless is thy love to the children of men. O Lord, we are thy dependent children. We are poor, and weak, and sinful; but none of us are so poor but thy love can make us rich; none are so weak but thy love can give us strength; none are so sinful but thy love will abound over all. Thou didst commend thy love to the world in that while all thy children had gone astray, thou didst send thy Son, that through him the world might be saved. Oh may we feel that thou art folding us continually in thine everlasting arms, and that in all our trials, in all our griefs, in all our sorrows, thou dost pity us as a father pitieth his children. As thou dost love us, so help us to love thee, and show our love by obedient service. Draw us very near to thee, and fold us there until our own hearts shall beat responsive to thine. Amen.

INTRODUCTORY SENTENCES.

OH sing unto Jehovah a new song;
For he hath done marvellous things:
His right hand, and his holy arm, hath wrought salvation for him.
Jehovah hath made known his salvation:
His righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the nations.
He hath remembered his loving-kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel:
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
Make a joyful noise unto Jehovah, all the earth:
Break forth and sing for joy, yea, sing praises.

RESPONSIVE READING.

GREAT is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised;
And his greatness is unsearchable.
One generation shall laud thy works to another,
And shall declare thy mighty acts.
Of the glorious majesty of thine honor,
And of thy wondrous works will I meditate.
Jehovah is gracious and merciful;
Slow to anger, and of great loving-kindness.
Jehovah is good to all;
And his tender mercies are over all his works.
All thy works shall give thanks unto thee, O Jehovah;
And thy saints shall bless thee.

O Jehovah God of hosts,
Who is a mighty one, like unto thee?
And thy faithfulness is round about thee.
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of thy throne;
Loving-kindness and truth go before thy face.
Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound:
They walk, O Jehovah, in the light of thy countenance.
In thy name do they rejoice all the day;
And in thy righteousness are they exalted.
For the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking
But righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.
Seek ye first his kingdom and his righteousness;
And all these things (things needful) shall be added unto you.

PRAYER.

UNTO thee, O God, is due the gratitude and praise of every heart. Thou art the King eternal, who rulest over all worlds; and all souls are thy rightful subjects. Thou hast taught us in thy word, that thy kingdom is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. Thy throne is in every heart;

it is thy right to reign, and our duty to obey. Give unto us, O God, we pray thee, hearts to welcome the reign of truth. May it prove within us a power unto salvation. May it purify our affections, direct our thoughts towards heavenly things, and sanctify all our desires and pursuits. May the good tidings which a Saviour brought be received in all their fulness, and the great joy they produce exclude the love of sin. To this end, O God, wilt thou order the exercises of our school. Fill all our hearts with thy spirit. Let thy righteousness and peace possess all our souls, that thy kingdom may come, and thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Make us faithful and obedient followers of thy Son, that our lives may be radiant like his. Keep us ever in thy love, that through thy grace we may overcome the world, enter into thy joy, and be crowned with thy salvation, through Jesus, our Master and Redeemer. Amen.

I WAITED patiently for Jehovah;
And he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.
He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay;
And he set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.
And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God:
Many shall see it and fear,
And shall trust in Jehovah.
Blessed is the man that maketh Jehovah his trust,
And respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

RESPONSIVE READING.

BLESSED are the poor in spirit:
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they that mourn:
For they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek:
For they shall inherit the earth.
Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness:
For they shall be filled.
Blessed are the merciful:
For they shall obtain mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart:
For they shall see God.
Blessed are the peace-makers:
For they shall be called sons of God.
Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake:
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

PRAYER.

GRACIOUS Father and Friend! Another Sabbath dawns upon us. As children we have come together to receive the blessing thou hast promised to them that seek thee early. Help us to adore thy perfections, to live in the light of thy goodness, and to be thankful for all the mercies we constantly enjoy. Teach us to hunger and thirst after righteousness, to be filled with its blessing, and to be satisfied with heavenly joy. May we live in peace with our companions, and cultivate friendship and love for all mankind. May we, even in childhood, learn to submit to the ways of thy Provi-

INTRODUCTORY SENTENCES.

○ COME, let us sing unto the Lord; let us heartily rejoice in the God of our salvation.

O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.

O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord our Maker.

God is a spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

CHANT OR HYMN.

RESPONSIVE READING.

○ GOD, thou art my God;

Early will I seek thee;

Because thy loving-kindness is better than life,

My lips shall praise thee.

Thus will I bless thee while I live;

I will lift up my hands in thy name.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place?

He that hath clean hands and a pure heart.

He shall receive the blessing of the Lord,

And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates!

And be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors;

Lift up your heads, O ye gates!

And the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory?

The Lord of hosts; he is the King of glory.

I will extol thee, my God, O King;

And I will bless thy name forever and ever.

Every day will I bless thee,

And I will praise thy name forever and ever.

Oh satisfy us early with thy mercy,

That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

When my heart is overwhelmed will I cry unto thee;

Lead me to the Rock that is higher than I.

PRAYER.

www.libtool.com I. A Prayer of Chrysostom.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy name thou wilt grant their requests; fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

II. A Prayer for God's Help.

O LORD, our heavenly Father, almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; defend us in the same with thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings, being ordered by thy governance, may be righteous in thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

III. A Prayer of Thanksgiving.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may show forth thy praise, not only in our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

IV. A Prayer for Those in Affliction.

O MERCIFUL God, and heavenly Father, who hast taught us in thy holy Word that thou dost not willingly afflict or grieve the children of men; look with pity, we beseech thee, upon the sorrows of thy servants, for whom our prayers are desired. In thy wisdom thou hast seen fit to visit them with trouble, and to bring distress upon them. Remember them, O Lord, in mercy; sanctify thy fatherly correction to them; endue their souls with patience under their affliction, and with resignation to thy blessed will; comfort them with a sense of thy goodness; lift up thy countenance upon them, and give them peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

INTRODUCTORY SENTENCES.

BLESSED be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, unto an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away.

For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge that one died for all, therefore all died; and he died for all, that they that live should no longer live unto themselves, but unto him who for their sakes died and rose again.

RESPONSIVE READING.

JEHOVAH hath comforted Zion;
He hath comforted all her waste places,
And hath made her wilderness like Eden,
And her desert like the garden of Jehovah;
Joy and gladness shall be found therein,
Thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.
The sun shall be no more thy light by day;
Neither for brightness shall the moon give her light unto thee;
But Jehovah will be unto thee an everlasting light,
And thy God thy glory.
And he will destroy the face of the covering that covereth all peoples,
And the veil that is spread over all nations.
Jehovah shall be thy strength and consolation;
And the days of thy mourning shall be ended.
He hath swallowed up death forever;
And will wipe away tears from off all faces.

PRAYER.

O THOU who art our Father and our everlasting Friend, the giver of life and all its blessings! we come into thy presence with thankful hearts, as we remember the provisions thou hast made, not only for the wants of our bodies, but also for our souls. And while we thank thee for the bounties of thy providence, we adore thy most holy name for the gift of thy Son. We thank thee for the life he lived, for the truth he taught, and for all the words of comfort which he has left for afflicted hearts. We thank thee that he lived for our instruction, that he died for our salvation, and rose again for our hope and consolation. Grant, O God, that we may ever look unto Children's Sunday.

www.libtool.com.INTRODUCTION.

THERE were brought unto him little children, that he should lay his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus called them unto him saying, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for to such belongeth the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein. And he took them in his arms and blessed them.

The disciples came unto Jesus, saying, Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven? And he called to him a little child and set him in the midst of them; and taking him in his arms, he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, except ye turn, and become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me; and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all the same is great.

See that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven. So it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

PRAYER.

O THOU on whom all creatures depend, the source and centre of all truth and life; we come to thee with grateful hearts for the privileges and blessings which we enjoy this day. And now, O God, we would renew our vows to thee, to love and serve thee better, and to seek, in all we do and say, to glorify thy holy name. Help us to consecrate our youthful hearts to thee, that we may follow closer in the footsteps of our Master and Redeemer. Help us to resist temptation, to turn our eyes away from the false attractions of sin, to overcome evil with good. May we abhor all that is wrong, and cleave only to that which is just and right. May we love our Sunday school more and more, and may our teachers and companions become dearer to our hearts. May we realize that thou art with us every day and hour of life, that we may strive to make our conduct pleasing in thy sight. Prepare us for all the duties and trials of the world; give us strength to labor, and patience to endure, and bring us at last to serve thee in a higher and better life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. www.libtool.com INTRODUCTORY SENTENCES.

WE have heard with our ears, O God,
Our fathers have told us,
What work thou didst in their days,
In the days of old.
Thou didst drive out the nations with thy hand;
But them thou didst plant:
Thou didst afflict the peoples;
But them thou didst spread abroad.
For they gat not the land in possession by their own sword,
Neither did their own arm save them
But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance.
Because thou wast favorable unto them.
When they were but a few men in number,
Yea, very few and sojourners in it.
And they went about from nation to nation,
From one kingdom to another people.
He suffered no man to do them wrong;
Yea, he reproved kings for their sakes,
Saying, Touch not mine anointed ones,
And do my prophets no harm.
That they might keep his statutes,
And observe his laws.

RESPONSIVE READING.

JEHOVAH our God be with us,
As he was with our fathers.
Our fathers trusted in thee:
They trusted, and thou didst deliver them.
They cried unto thee, and were delivered:
They trusted in thee, and were not put to shame.
Trust ye in Jehovah for ever;
For in Jehovah, is an everlasting rock.
The rock of my strength and my refuge is in God.
Trust in him at all times, ye people.
The way of the just is uprightness:
Thou that art upright doth direct the path of the just.
Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O Jehovah, have we waited for thee;
To thy name, even to thy memorial name, is the desire of our soul.

SERVICES.

For when thy judgments are in the earth,
The inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.
Righteousness exalteth a nation;
But sin is a reproach to any people.

PRAYER.

O THOU who art the Ruler of nations, we bow before thee as the author of our liberty, and the source of every blessing. We humbly acknowledge thee as the giver of all good government. We would thank thee, this day, for the existence of our nation, and for all the blessings it has brought to us and to the world. May our hearts be moved by the memories of this hour, and may we remember the price our fathers paid for liberty. May their memories be kept fresh in the hearts of our people to the latest generation. We humbly beseech thee to give unto us the same spirit which inspired their hearts, that we may prove ourselves worthy to be called their children; and that we may carry forward the work they have given us to do. Make us loyal to freedom, that we may ever uphold and defend our rights, and the rights of our fellow-men. Let thy blessing rest upon all the nations of the earth; and especially let thy favor be with our own beloved country. Fill our land with prosperity, and bless us with perpetual peace. Guide us through every peril; cleanse us as a people from every sin; and to thy name be all the glory forever and ever. Amen.

www.libtool.com INTRODUCTORY SENTENCES.

BLESSED be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; who comforteth us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort them that are in any affliction, through the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

Like as a father pitieth his children,
So Jehovah pitieth them that fear him.
For he knoweth our frame;
He remembereth that we are dust.

And the dust returneth to the earth as it was, and the spirit returneth unto God who gave it.

RESPONSIVE READING.

REGARD not lightly the chastening of the Lord,
Nor faint when thou art reproved of him.

For though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion
According to the multitude of his loving-kindness.

For he doth not afflict willingly,
Nor grieve the children of men.

Weeping may tarry for a night,
But joy cometh in the morning.

For none of us liveth to himself,
And none dieth to himself.

For whether we live, we live unto the Lord;
Or whether we die, we die unto the Lord:

Whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

For to this end Christ died and lived again that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril or sword?

Nay in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.
For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

SERVICES.

PRAYER.

FATHER of mercies and God of all comfort! thou art our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Thou hast taught us to come to thee with all our sorrows, and hast promised to hear us when we cry unto thee from the depths of our affliction. Draw near to us, we beseech thee, in this hour and let the blessed assurance of thy presence and thy word fill all our hearts. We bless thee, O thou Comforter of the afflicted, that we are not left to mourn as those who have no hope; that though we all do fade as the flower, and our lives are as a shadow that fleeth away, yet thou remainest, and thy years shall have no end. Help us to see that thou art dealing with us in love, and to feel that thou doest all things well. May the bereavements of life draw us nearer to him who is the resurrection and the life, that in his spirit we may say, Thy will be done. O lift upon us thy countenance, and fill our souls with heavenly peace. Guide us through the duties and trials of life, and finally gather us all to thyself in that upper and better world, where there shall be no more sickness, nor sorrow, nor death, but joy and bliss forevermore. Amen.

HYMN.

1. Come un-to me, when shadows darkly gath-er, When the sad heart is wea-ry and dis-tressed,
2. Large are the man-sions in thy Father's dwelling, Glad are the homes that sorrows never dim,
3. There, like an E - den blos-som-ing in gladness, Bloom the fair flow'rs the earth too rudely pressed;

Seeking for com-fort from your heav'nly Fa-ther, Come un - to me, and I will give you rest.
Sweet are the harps in ho-ly mu-sic swell-ing, Soft are the tones which raise the heav'nly hymn.
Come un-to me, all ye who droop in sad-ness, Come un-to me, and I will give you rest.

All-Souls Sunday.

www.libtool.com.cn INTRODUCTION.

AFTER these things I saw, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation and of all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, arrayed in white robes, and palms in their hands; and they cry with a great voice saying,

Salvation unto our God who sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb.

And all the angels were standing round about the throne, and about the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying,

Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be unto our God forever and ever. Amen.

And I heard a great voice out of the throne saying, Behold the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall dwell with them, and they shall be his peoples, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God: and he shall wipe away every tear from their eyes; and death shall be no more; neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more: the first things are passed away.

RESPONSIVE READING.

JEHOVAH, who shall sojourn in thy tabernacle?
Who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness,
And speaketh truth in his heart.

So teach us to number our days,

That we may get us a heart of wisdom.

My flesh and my heart faileth;

But God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

We have not here an abiding city,

But we seek after the city which is to come.

The city which hath the foundations,

Whose builder and maker is God.

As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy:

And as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

And as we have borne the image of the earthy,

We shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

For as in Adam all die,

So also in Christ shall all be made alive.

PRAYER.

GRACIOUS Father, we call upon thee because thou art better than all others, and the only one able to answer our prayers. In heaven and on earth thou hearest and answerest prayer. Thy gracious ear is always listening to the voices of thy children; thy tender eye is always watching them in their dangers; thy loving heart is always yearning for their walk with thee, and thy bountiful hand is always open to supply their wants. Thou knowest how far they are away from thee and their heart's true home, and how often they forget thee and their home with thee in heaven. To-day wilt thou lift our hearts up to thee and that home. Thou art our Father, and thy home we would look to as our own. Oh draw all our thoughts up to thee, and hold them there in restful confidence. Give us faith to see our home on high, with all our dear ones there. Teach us, O Father, to so live that our hearts may gain wisdom. Help us to enrich our hearts with all good affections, that we may be able to enjoy with fulness our home with thee. May we live all our days in affectionate intercourse with each other, that our homes below may be schools preparing us for our home in heaven; and unto thy great name would we ascribe praises now and evermore. Amen.

www.libtool.org INTRODUCTORY SENTENCES.

THE sceptre shall not depart from Judah,
Nor the ruler's staff from between his feet,
Until Shiloh come;
And unto him shall the obedience of the peoples be.

And the spirit of Jehovah shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Jehovah; and his delight shall be in the fear of Jehovah; and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither decide after the hearing of his ears; but with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth.

Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from henceforth even forever.

And nations shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

RESPONSIVE READING.

TO them that sat in the region and shadow of death;
To them did light spring up.
The light of the knowledge of the glory of God
In the face of Jesus Christ.
In him was life;
And the life was the light of men.
There was the true light,
Which lighteth every man coming into the world.
Arise, shine; for thy light is come,
And the glory of Jehovah is risen upon thee.
For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given;
And the government shall be upon his shoulder.
He shall have dominion from sea to sea,
And from the River unto the ends of the earth.
And the wolf shall dwell with the lamb,
And the leopard shall lie down with the kid,
And the calf, and the young lion, and the fatling together;
And a little child shall lead them.

with joy this day which commemorates his birth. We would lift up our voices in songs of praise, in honor of thine Anointed, the desire of all nations. And we pray that our hearts may be more deeply impressed with thy great love, revealed to the world through this unspeakable gift. We thank thee that thou hast made thyself known to us, in his pure precepts and spotless life; and that thou hast revealed through him the beauty and perfection of our nature. Help us, O God, so to receive him into our hearts, that we may glorify thy name, and establish peace and good-will among men. May the story of his life be impressed upon our minds, that we may remember him as the blameless Child, the obedient Son, and unchanging Friend. Sanctify us by his spirit, and save us in his kingdom, and thine shall be the praise forevermore. Amen.

I.

OUR Father who art in heaven; Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

II.

FATHER in heaven! we look to thee again for thy blessing, as we close the services of our school to-day. May the lessons we have learned here be deeply impressed upon our minds, and may we carry the spirit of this hour through all the week before us. Go with us, we pray thee, to guide us in the path of duty; to keep us from temptation, and to save us from all evil. Make us faithful to thee, and to each other, wherever we may go, that we may find happiness and peace according to thy promises, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

III.

FATHER of mercies, and God of all grace! we look up to thee, once more, in prayer and supplication. We acknowledge thee as the source of all our joy, and we would render unto thee some worthy offering of praise. May we be drawn nearer to thee as we see from day to day the testimonies of thy love; and may we show our gratitude for all thy favors, by the conduct of our lives. Let thy benediction go with us among the duties and temptations of the world, and may we find entrance into thy kingdom through Christ, our Master and Redeemer. Amen.

IV.

MOST Holy and Gracious God! we thank thee for the blessings we have enjoyed this day. We praise thy name for all we have learned of thy goodness and truth; and we pray that our hearts may be quickened thereby. May we never forget that thou art the giver and preserver of life; that we may devote our lives to thee, in obedience to thy will. Let thy blessing rest upon our hearts as we go from this place, and may we feel that thine eye is ever upon us. Keep us in thy love, and crown us with thy mercy, and to thee shall be ascribed all praise and dominion forever. Amen.

V.

FATHER of our spirits, we humbly thank thee for the faith of the gospel by which we look up to thee and call upon thy holy name. We acknowledge thy goodness in the blessings of this day, and we pray that it may so affect our hearts that the week before us may be spent acceptably to thee. Lord, write thy law upon our minds, and establish it in our souls. Give us the spirit of true devotion to thy will, that we may serve thee with glad and willing hearts. Pardon all our sins, we beseech thee, and grant unto us the guidance of thine ever-present Spirit. And thine shall be the praise forevermore. Amen.

VI.

O GOD, we bless thee for life, and health, and all things which tend to make us happier and better. We thank thee for what we have enjoyed this day. And we pray that each of us may go out from our school feeling that it has been good for us to be here. May we keep in mind the precepts of the gospel, and live in accordance with the example of Christ. Increase our faith, and hope, and love, that we may grow stronger in affection toward thee, and more kind and obliging toward each other. Help us to live in peace with the world, to bear our portion of its burdens, to resist its temptations, and overcome its evil; and in all we do and say may we glorify thy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

VII.

WE bless thee, O God, for this day of rest. And while we have hallowed thy name upon our lips in praise and prayer, may we now, as we leave this school, hallow thy spirit and love in our hearts, so that we may be able to show forth thy truth in our daily lives. As the light of this day has beamed upon us, so may the light of thy love shine in upon our hearts, and through our lives, that all error and sin may be banished afar from us. Help us in our duties; protect us in every temptation and danger; guide us by thy Spirit to the end of life, and receive us to thyself at last, redeemed from all weakness and sin, and made worthy to enter into thy rest, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Benedictions.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Amen.

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Jehovah bless thee and keep thee:

Jehovah make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:

Jehovah lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. Amen.

Profession of Faith.

We believe in the fatherhood of God; the authority of Jesus Christ; the teachings of the Bible; the punishment of sin; the final harmony of all souls with God.

The Winchester Profession.

ARTICLE I. We believe that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments contain a revelation of the character of God and of the duty, interest and final destination of mankind.

ARTICLE II. We believe that there is one God, whose nature is Love, revealed in one Lord Jesus Christ, by one Holy Spirit of Grace, who will finally restore the whole family of mankind to holiness and happiness.

ARTICLE III. We believe that holiness and true happiness are inseparably connected, and that believers ought to be careful to maintain order and practise good works; for these things are good and profitable unto men.

JESUS, STILL LEAD ON.

ZINZENDORF.

SILCHER.

1. Je - sus, still lead on Till our rest be won; And al-though the way be cheer-less,
2. If the way be drear, If the foe be near, Let not faith-less fears o'er-take us,
3. Je - sus, still lead on Till our rest be won; Heaven-ly Lead - er, still di - rect us,

We will fol-low, calm and fear-less; Guide us by thy hand To our fa-ther-land.
Let not faith and hope for-sake us; For through many a foe To our home we go.
Still sup-port, con-sole, pro-tect us, Till we safe-ly stand In our fa-ther-land.

LITTLE TAPER, SET TO-NIGHT.

KATE L. BROWN.

ELIZABETH U. EMERSON

Allegro moderato.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand (treble clef) begins with a series of chords and single notes, while the left hand (bass clef) plays a steady, rhythmic accompaniment. The tempo is marked 'Allegro moderato' and the style is 'marcato'.

1. Lit - tle ta - per, set to-night,
2. He is com - ing in the snow
3. Lit - tle ta - per, spread thy ray,
4. Lit - tle Christ Child, come to me,

The first system of the song features a vocal melody line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line includes the lyrics for the first four verses. The piano accompaniment continues from the introduction, with a 'rit.' (ritardando) marking appearing towards the end of the system.

The second system of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The vocal line includes the lyrics for the remaining verses. The piano accompaniment provides a steady accompaniment throughout.

WE THANK THEE, LORD, FOR THIS FAIR EARTH.

G. F. L. COTTON.

J. MAINZER.

1. We thank thee, Lord, for this fair earth, The glit-t'ring sky, the sil-ver sea ;
 2. Thine are the flow'rs that clothe the ground, The trees that wave their arms a - bove,
 3. Yet teach us still how far more fair, More glo-rious, Fa-ther, in thy sight,
 4. So while we gaze with thoughtful eye On all the gifts thy love has given,

For all their beau-ty, all their worth, Their light and glo-ry, come from thee.
 The hills that gird our dwell-ings round, As thou dost gird thine own with love.
 Is one pure deed, one ho-ly prayer, One heart that owns thy Spir-it's might.
 Help us in thee to live and die, By thee to rise from earth to heav'n.

THE MOTHERHOOD OF GOD.

Rev. J. S. CUTLER.

WILLIS A. MOORE.

1. Moth - er - hood, sub - lime, e - ter - nal, Lives in God's great heart of Love ;
 2. Ev - 'ry wrong will sure be right - ed ; Ev - 'ry e - vil swept a - way ;
 3. God is love, and love for - ev - er In the moth - er - heart is best ;

Ev - er holds us, Safe en - folds us, Un - der - neath, a - round, a - bove ;
 Truth up - spring - ing, Jus - tice bring - ing, Ush - ers in the larg - er day ;
 Lives the long - est, Lifts the strong - est, Far out - reach - ing all the rest ;

Pä - tient, ten - der, kind, for - giv - ing, Though in de - vious paths we roam ;
 Moth - er calls her earth - ly chil - dren, Loves them, lifts them when they fall ;
 Not in might, and not in wis - dom Lies our lift - ing from the sod ;

Gen - tly chides us, Ev - er guides us, And all - lov - ing, leads us home.
 Striv - ing, call - ing, Faint - ing, fall - ing, Moth - er - love be - holds it all.
 Love's pure glo - ry Tells the sto - ry, In the Moth - er - heart of God.
