OF THE
CONSOLIDATORS OF THE CHANCERY ORDERS,
TO THE
RIGHT HONORABLE THE LORD CHELMSFORD,
LORD HIGH CHANCELLOR.

MY LORD,

Having now completed the work of consolidating the General Orders of the Court of Chancery, which was entrusted to us by your Lordship, we beg to make some observations thereon, by way of Report.

The instructions which, by your Lordship's direction, were given us by Mr. John James Johnson, the Solicitor to the Suitors' Fund, were thus expressed: "To consolidate all the Orders contained in the collection of Orders by G. W. Sanders, Esq., published by Maxwell & Son, in the year 1845, which relate to general practice, and the Orders of the Court subsequent thereto relating to general practice; so that all such Orders as have become superseded, or have become obsolete as Orders, though they may have been the foundation of existing practice, and all such Orders as are expressly or virtually abrogated by other Orders, or by statutes, or by decisions which appear to have established a practice more expedient than that which the Orders repugnant to them enjoin, be omitted; and so that the remainder, except where their style is very antiquated, be not further altered in language than shall be deemed necessary for the purpose of consolidating the same, and of adapting them to the present practice, so as to form a harmonious and well-arranged collection, and for the purpose of determining the most expedient practice, where there is a conflict of authority on the words of an Order.”

During the progress of the work, an opinion was expressed by one or two of the officers of the Court, that a more extended plan should be at once adopted; and we have been strongly urged to apply to your Lordship for an extension of the powers conferred by the above instructions. We have declined, however, to make such an application, for the reasons (amongst others) expressed in the following remarks:—

The procedure of the Court of Chancery (as it is well known) is regulated in various distinct ways:—1st. By Act of Parliament. 2ndly. By General Orders made by the Lord Chancellor, either alone, or by and with the advice and assistance of the other Equity Judges, or some of them. 3rdly. By Regulations not purporting to be General Orders. 4thly. By Decisions. 5thly. By Usage.

These various modes are not the result of accident or caprice, but (in our humble opinion) of practical convenience and sound discrimination, on the part of those who from time to time have allowed the practice of the Court to be so directed. And although it would be a more simple, and, to some, it might appear to be a more perfect system, to fuse Statutory Enactments, General Orders, and mere Regulations into one code of rules, of one and the same character, yet we think that, in reality, such a course would be very objectionable.

We apprehend that it has been the wisdom of the Legislature, and of the Court of Chancery, to preserve these different modes of governance or direction quite distinct. Although there are many exceptions and anomalies, yet, in the main, the following distinctions may be laid down:—1st. There are some principal points of procedure which have been considered to be of such a character, that it is desirable that they should not be subjected to abrogation or alteration, except by the Legislature itself; and they have accordingly been embodied in the form of Enactments.

2ndly. There are others, as to which it has been considered to be desirable that they should be revocable or alterable by the Lord Chancellor alone, or with the advice and assistance of the other Equity Judges or some of them; and those have accordingly been embodied in the form of General Orders. 3rdly. There are others which are deemed to be more properly the subject of mere Regulations, as consisting of matter relating to the routine of particular offices, or matters of detail or of experiment, so as to render it inexpedient to embody them in the permanent and formal shape of General Orders. 4thly. There are other points of infinite variety which are, and ever must be, decided pro re nata. And, 5thly. There are others which are suggested by convenience, and become sanctioned by mere usage.

It has been urged with great plausibility, that at all events the Enactments on the subject and the Orders ought to be consolidated into one code of Enactments or of Orders. And indeed we fully admit that this would be a great convenience to the Judges, to the Officers of the Court, and to Practitioners. But the convenience of these several persons ought to be only subordinate to the public advantage. And we conceive that it would have been a great mistake, on the whole, to have consolidated Enactments and Orders into one code of rules of the same character, whether exclusively as Enactments or exclusively as Orders. It is not at all likely that the Legislature would consent to place those important rules of practice which it has thought fit to make the subject of Enactments, within the power of the Equity Judges, or some of them, to be rescinded or altered at pleasure, by reducing them to the character of Orders. And, on the other hand, it would seem to be most inexpedient to take the opposite course of embodying all the Orders into an Act of Parliament: for, the difficulty of obtaining an alteration or improvement of the law, when once it has been incorporated into an Act, is well known. And if so incorporated, it would not be in the power of the Judges to make those exceptions and qualifications in particular cases, which they have the power to make in the case of mere Orders. This is the dilemma

which is involved in the proposition to effect such a consolidation as above suggested. Even if it were proposed to embody all rules of practice into an Act of Parliament, but with the provision that they should be deemed Orders of the Court of Chancery to all intents and purposes ; still, they would be either revocable and alterable as Orders, or they would not. If it were proposed that they should be so inserted in the draft of an Act, and be revocable and alterable as Orders, the Legislature would not be at all likely to consent, nor does it seem proper that the Legislature should consent, to place them on this footing ; and indeed, in that case it would be useless to insert them in an Act. And if it were proposed that they should not be so revocable and alterable as Orders, this, for the reasons above assigned, would be highly inexpedient. A striking illustration of these remarks occurs in Calvert v. Gandy, 1 Phil. 518 ; and Medhurst v. Allison, 4 Hare, 479.

Again, it has been pressed upon us, that it would be very desirable to embrace the present opportunity of making a great number of additions and of improvements of the practice. But he who supposes that any considerable additions and improvements could be effected at once and with little more delay than consolidation, is but little acquainted with the difficulty and delay with which any new Orders are agreed upon and settled, when there are seven Equity Judges, and a great number of Officers of the Court whose opinion it is usual and only prudent to take. And however desirable such additions and improvements may be, they will be made to far greater advantage after the present consolidation, than as part of the consolidation in the first instance. If extensive additions and alterations were now made, they would probably be quickly followed by other extensive changes ; so that the practice would be likely to be very greatly unsettled twice within a short period, instead of being, in the main, placed on a different footing once for all—so far at least as any measure of the kind can be final. It would seem to be the best course first to lay a foundation, by giving the profession a clear view of the practice as it stands, so far as it is regulated by the Orders. Instead of attempting to patch and repair and make some little additions, before they had ascertained the state of the building, they will now know upon what they have to proceed ; what exists, and what does not exist ; what is the real character and state of the building sought to be enlarged and improved. Suggestions might advantageously be invited from all quarters, to be sent in within a specified time, to the Solicitor of the Suitors' Fund, or some other person appointed to receive them, for the perfecting of the edifice, now that it is cleared from all the rubbish of former ages ; and, as the result of those suggestions, after an adequate interval, a more complete structure could be reared. And in the meantime, supposing your Lordship's design, whether regarded as final or as only preparatory, to be successfully accomplished, a great and unmixed good will have been effected, by bringing order out of confusion, and harmony out of discord, and by separating those Orders which are subsisting from a mass of others which have become defunct.

However expedient it may be that a far more extended codification should be effected, yet it would seem clear that it would have been very inexpedient to allow the General Orders of the Court to remain in their present state during that indefinite, and, probably, long period which would elapse before such more extended codification would be accomplished.

Few can have a just notion of the complexity, discrepancy, repugnancy, and confusion of this, the principal written law of the Court, or of the care, consideration, and labour requisite for that which has been described to us by some persons, and may appear to many, to be a simple matter.

In the majority of cases, until of late years, each succeeding Chancellor put forth such Orders as he deemed expedient, without taking any notice whatever of the acts of his predecessors, which, indeed, were often unknown to him, as no care was taken as to the preservation of many of the early Orders, and there was no complete collection published. (See Prefaces to Beames' and Sanders' Orders.) The General Orders in the Collection by Mr.

Sanders (to whose research the profession are so much indebted), and those which have been subsequently promulgated, are not only very numerous, but some are contained in Private Orders, and they extend over a period of nearly 500 years commencing with the reign of Richard II. The largest portion are not in force. A great number of them have been expressly abrogated by other Orders: but many have been only virtually repealed or superseded; some by statutes, others by subsequent Orders, others by a train of decisions, others by disuse or contrary usage. And there are instances of an Order having from time to time been silently and partially abrogated, leaving some small portion of it still subsisting.

These considerations appear to prove the utility of your Lordship's design, and the propriety of the limited nature of the authority conferred upon us.

As the business in the Masters' Offices will ere long be wound up, and as the Orders relating to the Suitors' Fund and Suitors' Fee Fund, which are very numerous, do not affect general practice, we have not incorporated the Orders connected with these subjects, but have simply left them unabrogated.

We have adapted to the practice in Chambers some of the Orders relating to the business in the Masters' Offices. But there are others which we have omitted, as unnecessary or improper, in the case of a Judge, and of his Chief Clerk acting under him, although they were necessary in the case of a Master. And all danger which might otherwise have arisen from the omission of any of those Orders is prevented by the 58th Order of October 16, 1852, which we have incorporated. (See p. 116)

As alterations in regard to fees and charges are so frequent, we have given the Schedules and some parts of the Orders relating to them in a separate form, as Regulations, and have provided that they may be altered from time to time by other Regulations made by the same authority as the General Orders. This will save the present Consolidated Orders from being continually subjected to alteration in this respect, and yet give the profession the same security, as to fees and charges, as if they were in all respects regulated by General Orders. Those points, however, as to fees and charges, which are likely to be permanent, we have embodied in the Consolidated Orders.

We have omitted the Forms of Orders in Suits by Claim contained in Schedule (C.) to the General Orders of 22nd April 1850, as those forms are obsolete, and orders in Suits by Claim are now framed in the same manner as orders in Suits by Bill.

With respect to the Orders of 4th March 1856, made under the Act for the Drainage of Settled Estates, we have been informed that they have been almost a dead letter. And as it appears to us to be impossible to reduce them to a shape conformable to the modern practice, without repealing some of the provisions of that Act, we have not incorporated them, but have simply left them unabrogated.

With books of practice which show in what way the Orders have been construed by the Court, it did not seem necessary to incorporate the effect of explanatory decisions. Nor did such an attempt seem expedient; as the very language used to give the effect of decisions would probably have itself formed the subject of fresh doubt and decision. This point was considered by your Lordship before our instructions were given to us.

In the additions and alterations we have made, we have in some few exceptional cases gone somewhat beyond our instructions, but only in those cases in which we thought there could be no two opinions as to the propriety of so doing, and in which we consequently felt sure your Lordship would desire it. Some of these additions and alterations were designed to correct some unquestionable slips, ambiguities, discrepancies, and inaccuracies; and others to remove a danger of the present practice being disturbed or doubted, in consequence of the defective language of an Order as it stood.

Some few rules introduce new practice, and are submitted to your Lordship for consideration. To most (if not to all) of the rules in which the practice is changed, an asterisk is prefixed.*

We believe that the present Collection of Orders contains none but those which are subsisting, and all such as are subsisting; with the exception of those which are excepted from the operation of the first Rule of the Preliminary Order; and with the exception of a very few which we deemed it safer not to retain; all possibility of danger from their omission being obviated by the 5th Rule of the Preliminary Order; and with the exception also of some few which are repugnant in terms or intention to other Orders or to Enactments, or which are now improper in consequence of other Orders or Enactments.

As regards the 5th Rule of the Preliminary Order, there are some cases in which the practice, originating in certain Orders, or sanctioned to some extent by them, has been so altered or qualified by enactment, decision, or usage, that they have become superseded or obsolete as Orders. These we have been instructed to omit, and we have generally omitted them. But with the view of guarding against any contention that the abrogation of them affected the existing practice, and with the further view of guarding against the consequences of the possible omission of an Order by accident or inadvertency, the 5th

* In the directory part of many of the abrogated Orders, incorporated in this Collection, such colloquial expressions as "is to" &c. or "are to" &c. were used, while in many others "shall" &c. was used. In this collection of Orders, "shall" &c. is used throughout, for the sake of uniformity, without any variation of intention. Again, in the introductory part of the incorporated Orders, in some instances, the expression "in all cases where" or "where" was used, and in other instances "if" was used; and sometimes "if" was followed by the indicative mood, and at other times by the subjunctive; and sometimes by the present tense of the indicative mood, at other times by the past tense, at other times by the first future, and at other times by the second future. An attempt to produce complete uniformity would have involved much alteration, without any practical utility; but for the sake of a somewhat greater degree of harmony, and to avoid the question about the subjunctive mood, "where," followed by the present tense, has generally been substituted for "if" in this Consolidation. And some other slight alterations have been made with a similar object.

Rule of the Preliminary Order was framed. A precedent for this occurs in the Irish Orders consolidated by Lord St. Leonards, when Lord Chancellor of Ireland; the first Order of which provides, "that the abrogation of any existing Rule shall not be deemed to alter or affect the established practice of the Court originating therefrom, except so far as the same may be inconsistent with any of those General Orders."

As regards the 7th and 8th Rules of the Preliminary Order, it must be observed, that the following Orders (except so far as any of them introduce new practice) are not intended to be regarded as new Orders, but as a consolidation of old Orders. And although the appearance would have been better, if some of the incorporated Orders had been entirely re-written, and it would have been more easy to have done so than to have decided in what way partially to alter the language of them (as we have in many instances done) without altering them further than necessary, yet they would then have been the subject of new constructive interpretation to a much greater extent. And even if, in their present consolidated state, they had been put forth as a body of new Orders, the door would have been thrown open to contention as to the construction of them, upon points which have been set at rest by the course of decisions and practice on the old Orders. To preclude this danger of awakening fresh litigation, the 7th and 8th Rules of the Preliminary Order were framed. A precedent for the 7th Rule occurs in the consolidated Irish Orders; the first of which provides "that all former Orders which are hereinafter simply repeated shall continue to operate as if they had not been disturbed."

With respect to the arrangement of the Orders, we deemed it best not to lay down any plan at the commencement, and then endeavour to arrange them according to that plan, but to take the opposite course of determining the plan partly by the subject matter, number, and mutual connexion of the Orders which we might find to be subsisting, so far as any such connexion existed, and partly by considerations of present practical convenience and the possibility of additions being made at a future time. If the first course had been adopted, there would have been titles without any Orders to place under them; some single Orders must have been multiplied into several; and the connexion at present existing between certain Orders must have been severed, which would have induced the necessity for a greater alteration of the language.

Instead of denominating each distinct paragraph or direction a distinct Order, such paragraphs or directions are classified into a certain number of subjects; and to each of those subjects is given the designation of an Order; and the component paragraphs or directions of each Order are designated by the name of Rules.* This division and subdivision appeared to us to be desirable for three reasons: First, because we think such an arrangement would greatly aid the memory; for in a short time the practitioner would easily remember the titles and numbers of the different subjects constituting the different Orders; such Orders being few as compared with the Orders of which the consolidation would have consisted, if each paragraph had been denominated an Order, and had been numbered accordingly. Secondly, because if our arrangement should be adopted, then in the event of a fresh issue of the Consolidated Orders at any future time, the numbers of the Orders with which the practitioner would have become familiar, might probably remain the same, and the numbers of the Rules alone be changed (if deemed desirable) on the addition of new matter, instead of the memory of the practitioner being charged with an entirely new set of numbers. And thirdly, if there were consecutive numbers throughout, references in Reports and text-books to those numbers would have afforded no guide to the same matter contained in any new issue of the Orders differently numbered.

* Some of the Orders are divided into Sections; but, for the sake of simplicity of reference, the numbers of the Rules run on, as if no such division existed. So that it will not be necessary to mention the sectional division of an Order, where any exists. Any rule of the Consolidated Orders may be conveniently cited in Court thus—"the 10th of the Consolidated Orders, rule 11," or in a book thus—"10th Cons. Ord. r. 11."

The Consolidated Orders comprise about six hundred Rules, representing about the same number of abrogated Orders incorporated therein. But of course we have nothing to shew, in the following pages, for the amount of time and thought bestowed on the consideration of the mass of abrogated Orders which we have altogether omitted, as superseded, obsolete, repugnant, or defunct.

It may be a satisfaction to your Lordship to know, that instead of dividing the labour between us, as regards the selection of the Orders to be omitted and the Orders to be retained, we first made the selection independently of each other, and then compared and considered the results at which we respectively arrived. By adopting this plan, of course there was a much less chance of accident or inadvertency, than there would have been if we had attempted to allot a distinct portion of the Orders to each. And, by your Lordship's direction, and at our own desire, in order to insure the greater accuracy, before submitting the Orders to the Judges themselves, printed copies have been sent by Mr. Johnson to the Accountant-General, to the Examiners, to the Registrars, to the Taxing Masters, to the Clerk of the Inrolments in Chancery, to the Chief Clerks of the Judges, and to the Clerks of Records and Writs: and we beg to express our obligations to these gentlemen for many valuable remarks, and particularly to Mr. Leach, one of the Registrars, who kindly perused the proof sheets before the printed copies were sent to the other officers of the Court, and with whom we have been in frequent communication on the subject, whilst the orders have been under revision.

There are many things connected with this Consolidation which may be likely to appear to some persons to be errors or oversights, but which have been fully considered by us, and are conceived by us to be founded on good reasons; although it would have occupied far too much space to have set forth those reasons in this Report.

From the character of some of these points, which are subjects of doubtful disputation and a nice discretion, a difference of opinion would naturally exist, even after the fullest consideration; and from the very nature of the undertaking, notwithstanding the care bestowed upon it, we can scarcely hope that this Consolidation is free from all inadvertency or imperfection. But, on the whole, we trust that it will be found substantially to accomplish your Lordship's design; and that the profession in general will see the great propriety and utility of that design, and will not regard the manner in which it has been executed in an unfavourable light.

We have the honor to be, my Lord,

Your Lordship's obedient, humble servants,

JOSIAH W. SMITH, B.C.L., Barrister-at-Law.

H. CADMAN JONES, M.A., Barrister-at-Law.

CONSOLIDATORS OF THE CHANCERY ORDERS,

TO THE

RIGHT HONORABLE THE LORD CAMPBELL,
LORD HIGH CHANCELLOR.

MY LORD,

Your Lordship, immediately after accepting the Great Seal, having commended to the attention of the other Equity Judges, the proposed Consolidated General Orders of the Court of Chancery, which had been submitted to them by Lord Chelmsford, and some of the Judges having, in the course of the Long Vacation, made a number of valuable observations thereon, we have, by your Lordship's desire expressed to us at the commencement of the past term, carefully considered those observations, and conferred with the distinguished persons with whose remarks we have been favoured, and with some of the Officers of the Court, respecting them; and in consequence thereof, we have made a few alterations and additions in the proposed Orders. Certain points, however, remain for the consideration of your Lordship and the other Equity Judges, at the meeting which your Lordship informed us it was your intention to convene, and which we have been summoned to attend.* When these are

* At this meeting, which took place on the 1st of December, and at which the Lord Chancellor and all the other Equity Judges were present, it was determined that Claims should be abolished, on the ground, that although they were very useful at disposed of, we hope to be in a condition finally and at once to revise the print of the proposed Orders, and to submit the same for your Lordship's signature.

It will be gratifying to your Lordship, as well as to Lord Chelmsford, to know, that some persons, well acquainted with the subject, who, before they had perused these Orders, thought little of the utility of the design, have, since they have examined them, been fully impressed with the propriety and advantage of such a Consolidation as that which we were instructed to effect, and which has been so zealously furthered by your Lordship.

We have the honor to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's obedient, humble servants,

the time they were introduced, yet, in consequence of the change of practice in other respects (such as the dispensing with answers in so many cases, and the proceeding by way of motion for a decree,) it is no longer necessary or desirable to resort to the proceeding by Claim; and that the number of Claims filed, has year by year been decreasing, and is now very small indeed. At the same meeting some few other Orders and parts of Orders were also omitted as unnecessary.

* It may be thought that this should have been placed higher in the list. But there would have been at least equal objection to any other place. To have dealt with this and some other Titles in the most logical way, it would have been necessary to have adopted a division into three or four parts. But this would have complicated the reference to the Orders, in Text Books and in Court. It was deemed the best course to subordinate strict logical accuracy to practical convenience.—Consolidators' Note.

2. The abrogation hereinbefore made shall not be deemed to extend to any rules put forth by the authority of the Judges of the said Court, not purporting to be General Orders, but purporting to be mere Regulations.

Old Suits, &c. to be governed by the same practice by which they are now governed.

4. The practice peculiar to Claims shall continue in force with respect to Claims filed, or to be filed, before the fifteenth day of February, 1860. (See p. 36, infra.)

7. Every Order or part of an Order hereinafter contained which is a repetition, without variation, of an Order or part of an Order hereby abrogated, shall receive the same construction as was put on such abrogated Order or part of an Order, and shall operate, not as a new Order, but in the same manner, whether as to the time of operation or otherwise, as such abrogated Order or part of an Order would have operated if this consolidation had not been effected. And where the variation is of such a character as to be reasonably attributable, not to a variation of intention, but simply to a design to harmonise the style or language of the several Orders hereinafter incorporated, such variation shall not be deemed to indicate any such contrary intention.

RULE 9.
Time when new Orders shall take effect.

9. All such Orders or parts of Orders hereinafter contained as are entirely new Orders or parts of Orders, and all such Orders or parts of Orders hereinafter contained as, having regard to the last preceding Rule of this Preliminary Order, shall be properly deemed to be new Orders or parts of Orders, shall take effect on the fifteenth day

ORDER X.
Service of copy of Bill, and Appearance.

1. (22nd May 1661; Sanders, 297.)

RULE 1.
Usual mode of service.

1. In the Case of Parties generally.

2. The Court may direct substituted service of a copy of a bill to be served under the Stat. 15 & 16 Vict. c. 86, in cases in which, according to the practice of the Court, existing at the time of the passing of that Statute, substituted service of a subpœna to appear to and answer a bill might have been directed. (22nd May 1661; Sanders, 297.)

RULE 2.
Substituted
service.

3. Where a defendant within the jurisdiction of the Court is served with a copy of a bill in manner provided by the Stat. 15 & 16 Vict. c. 86, s. 3, he must appear thereto within eight days after the service of such copy of the bill; otherwise an appearance may be entered for him, as provided by the next Rule of this Order. (8th May 1845; Ord. 16, Art. 3.)

RULE 3.

And after the expiration

RULE 5.

RULE 6.
 Where appearance may be entered by plaintiff for defendant absconding.

6. Where the Court is satisfied by sufficient evidence that any defendant has been within the jurisdiction of the Court at some time not more than two years before the bill was filed, and that such defendant is beyond the seas, or that, upon inquiry at his usual place of abode (if he had any), or at any other place or places where at the time when the bill was filed he might probably have been met with, he could not be found so as to be served with a copy of the bill, under the Stat. 15 & 16 Vict. c. 86, s. 3, and that in either case there is just ground to believe that such defendant has gone out of the realm or otherwise absconded to avoid being served with such copy of the bill or with other process, the Court may order that such defendant do appear at a certain day to be named in the order; and a copy of such order, together with a notice to the effect set forth at the end of this Rule, may, within fourteen days after such order made, be inserted in the "London Gazette," and be otherwise published as the Court shall direct. And where the defendant does not appear within the time limited by such order, or within such further time as the Court may appoint, there, on proof made of such publication of the said order, the Court may order an appearance to be entered for the defendant on the application of the plaintiff.

Notice.—"A. B., take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above order, the plaintiff may enter an

And where an answer is required, such order shall also limit a time within which such defendant is to plead, answer, or demur, or obtain from the Court further time to make his defence to the bill.

ARTICLE (2.)

(3.) At the time when such copy of the bill shall be served, the plaintiff shall also cause such defendant to be served with a copy of the order giving the plaintiff leave to serve such copy of the bill.

And thereupon, the party entering such appearance shall be entitled to be served with notice of all proceedings in the cause, and to appear thereon. 4. Where a demurrer or plea to the whole bill is overruled, the plaintiff, if he does not require an answer, may immediately file his note in manner directed by the 1st and 2nd Rules of this Order, as the case may require, and with the same effect, unless the Court, upon overruling such demurrer or plea, gives time to the defendant to plead, answer, or demur; and in such case, if the defendant does not file any plea, answer, or demurrer within the time so allowed by the Court, the plaintiff, if he does not then require an answer, may, on the expiration of such time, file such note. put in his answer to the bill, or obtained further time to answer the same, the Court, if it so think fit, may order the bill to be taken pro confesso against such defendant, either immediately, or at such time and upon such terms and subject to such conditions as under the circumstances of the case the Court shall think proper. (8th May 1845; Ord. 76, and Ord. 16, Art. 49.)

*Taking Bills
pro Confesso.*

2. Where any defendant, whether within or not within the jurisdiction of the Court, does not put in his answer in due time after appearance entered by or for him, and the plaintiff is unable, with due diligence, to procure a writ of attachment or any subsequent process for want of answer to be executed against such defendant, by reason of his being out of the jurisdiction of the Court, or being concealed, or for any other cause, then such defendant shall, for the purpose of enabling the plaintiff to obtain an order to take the bill pro confesso, be deemed to have absconded to avoid or to have refused to obey the process of the Court. (8th May 1845; Ord. 77.)

RULE 2.
Where defendant not answering shall be deemed to have absconded to avoid process, or to have refused to obey process.

3. Where any defendant who, under the 2nd Rule of this Order, may be deemed to have absconded to avoid or to have refused to obey the process of the Court, appears in person or by his own solicitor, the plaintiff may serve upon such defendant or his solicitor a notice, that on a day in such notice named (being not less than fourteen days after the service of such notice), the Court will be moved that the bill may be taken pro confesso against such defendant; and the plaintiff must, upon the hearing of such motion, satisfy the Court that such defendant ought, under the provisions of the 2nd Rule of this Order, to be deemed to have absconded to avoid or to have refused to obey the process of the Court; and the Court, if so satisfied, and if an answer has not been filed, may, if it so think fit, order the bill to be taken pro confesso against such defendant, either immediately, or at such time or upon such further notice as under the circumstances of the case the Court may think proper. (8th May 1845; Ord. 78.)

and } . . . . . Defendants.
Henry Jones }

Bill of Complaint.

To the Right Honorable JOHN Baron CAMPBELL, of
St. Andrews, in the County of Fife, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain.

Humbly complaining, sheweth unto his Lordship, John Lee, of Bedford Square, in the County of Middlesex, Esq., the above-named plaintiff, as follows :—

1. The defendant James Styles, being seised in fee simple of a farm called Blackacre, in the parish of A., in the county of B., with the appurtenances, did, by an Indenture dated the 1st of May, 1850, and made between the defendant James Styles of the one part, and the plaintiff of the other part, grant and convey the said farm with the appurtenances unto, and to the use of, the plaintiff, his heirs and assigns, subject to a proviso for redemption thereof, in case the defendant James Styles, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, should on the 1st of May, 1851, pay to the plaintiff, his executors, administrators, or assigns, the sum of £5000, with interest thereon, at the rate of £5 per centum per annum, as by the said Indenture will appear.

2. The whole of the said sum of £5000, together with interest thereon at the rate aforesaid, is now due to the plaintiff.

3. The defendant Henry Jones, claims to have some charge upon the farm and premises comprised in the said Indenture of Mortgage of the 1st of May, 1850, which charge is subsequent to the plaintiff's said mortgage.

4. The plaintiff has frequently applied to the defendants, James Styles and Henry Jones, and required them either to pay the said debt, or else to release the equity of redemption of the premises, but they have refused so to do.

5. The defendants James Styles and Henry Jones, pretend that there are some other mortgages, charges, or incumbrances affecting the premises, but they refuse to discover the particulars thereof.

6. There are divers valuable oak, elm, and other timber and timber-like trees growing and standing on the farm and lands comprised in the said Indenture of Mortgage of the 1st of May, 1850, which trees and timber are a material part of the plaintiff's said security; and if the same or any of them were felled and taken away, the said mortgaged premises would be an insufficient security to the plaintiff for the money due thereon.

7. The defendant James Styles, who is in possession of the said farm, has marked for felling a large quantity of the said oak and elm trees and other timber, and he has, by hand bills, published on the 2nd of December instant, announced the same for sale, and he threatens and intends forthwith to cut down and dispose of a considerable quantity of the said trees and timber on the said farm.

Prayer.

The plaintiff prays as follows :—

1. That an account may be taken of what is due for principal and interest on the said mortgage.
2. That the defendants James Styles and Henry Jones, may be decreed to pay to the plaintiff the amount which shall be so found due, together with his costs of this suit, by a short day to be appointed for that purpose, or, in default thereof, that the defendants James Styles and Henry Jones, and all persons claiming under them, may be absolutely foreclosed of all right and equity of redemption in or to the said mortgaged premises.
3. That the defendant James Styles may be restrained, by the injunction of this Honorable Court, from felling, cutting, or disposing of any of the timber or timber-like trees now standing or growing in or upon the said farm and premises comprised in the said Indenture of Mortgage, or any part thereof.
4. That the plaintiff may have such further or other relief as the nature of the case may require.

The defendants to this Bill of Complaint are,

James Styles,
Henry Jones.

Y. Y.,
(name of Counsel.)

NOTE.—This Bill is filed by Messrs. A. B. and C. D., of Lincoln's Inn, in the County of Middlesex, Solicitors for the above-named plaintiff.

The Answer of James Styles, one of the above-named defendants to the Bill of Complaint of the above-named plaintiff.

In answer to the said Bill, I, James Styles, say as follows :—

1. I believe that the defendant Henry Jones, does claim to have a charge upon the farm and premises comprised in the Indenture of Mortgage of the First of May, One thousand eight hundred and fifty, in the plaintiff's Bill mentioned.

2. Such charge was created by an Indenture dated the First of November, One thousand eight hundred and fifty, made between myself of the one part, and the said defendant Henry Jones of the other part, whereby I granted and conveyed the said farm and premises, subject to the mortgage made by the said Indenture of the First of May, One thousand eight hundred and fifty, unto the defendant Henry Jones, for securing the sum of Two thousand pounds and interest at the rate of Five pounds per centum per annum, and the amount due thereon is the said sum of Two thousand pounds, with interest thereon, from the date of such mortgage.

3. To the best of my knowledge, remembrance, and belief, there is not any other mortgage, charge, or incumbrance affecting the aforesaid premises.

Act of 12 Geo. I., c. 32.

Whereas the Right Honorable the late Lords Commissioners for the custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain did, on the 26th day of May, in the year of our Lord 1725, make a general Order of this Court, for delivering into, and depositing in the Bank of England, the money, bonds, tallies, and other effects of the suitors of this Court, which had been, or thereafter should be taken under the care and direction of this Court, and for the security thereof, Which Order, by another general Order of this Court, made by the Right Honorable the late Lord High Chancellor, &c., on the 4th day of November following, was directed to be kept and observed, with several explanations, alterations, and additions, in the said last-mentioned Order contained, And whereas, by an act of Parliament made in the 12th year of the reign of his late Majesty, King George the First, intituled, "An Act for better securing the moneys and effects of the suitors of the Court of Chancery, and to prevent the counterfeiting of East India bonds, and indorsements thereon, as likewise indorsements on South Sea bonds," it was (amongst other things) enacted, that the said two several Orders should be confirmed, and that the same should be thenceforwards observed, and kept, unless in such points as in the said act were varied, or should at any time thereafter be varied or changed, by this Court, according as the said Court should, from the exigency or circumstances of affairs, judge reasonable or proper, And it was by the said act further provided, that notwithstanding any thing therein contained, this Court should have full power and authority from time to time, according to the exigency of affairs, to vary, alter, or change, any part of the regulations in the said Orders, or in the said act before contained, and to make such further or other regulations about the premises, as to this Court should seem meet and reasonable, And whereas the legal interest or property, in several Exchequer orders and tallies, belonging to the suitors of this Court, and now in the custody of the Bank of England, continues in the persons to whom they were originally granted, or is vested in their representatives or assignees, The Right Honorable the Lord High Chancellor &c., taking the same into his consideration, and the inconveniencies that may arise in receiving from the Exchequer the annuities due and which shall grow due on such orders and tallies, for want of having the same entered at the Exchequer, and proper indorsements made thereon, that the annuities on such orders are to be paid to the cashiers of the Bank of England, for the use of the said suitors, His Lordship doth hereby order, that the Bank of England do, by their proper officer or officers, send to the Exchequer, all such Exchequer orders, belonging to the suitors of this Court, and now in the Bank, as aforesaid, To the intent, that the proper officer or officers of the Exchequer may make entries in the books kept there, and indorsements on the said orders, that the annuities due, and which shall grow due thereon respectively are to be paid to one of the cashiers of the Bank of England for the time being, to be placed to the credit of the respective causes to which the said Orders do belong, and to no other person or persons whatsoever, without the further order of this Court, And that the like entries and indorsements be made on all such Exchequer orders as shall hereafter be delivered into the Bank on account of any of the suitors of this Court, by virtue or in consequence of any decree or order of this Court. And it is further ordered, that this Order be forthwith published, and set up in all the offices belonging to this Court, concerned in this order, or in the two general Orders of this Court hereinbefore mentioned.

2nd, the Report;

3rd, the Order confirming the Report, and authorizing the improvements to be made;]

Now, therefore, I the said Master, in pursuance of the said Act, do hereby certify, that any person advancing money for making the said permanent improvement specified in my said Report will, upon its being made to appear to me that such money, to the amount specified in my said Report, has been fully expended in making the said improvements, or in paying the expense of obtaining the authority of this Court, become and be entitled to a charge on the inheritance of the land for the repayment of the money advanced, with interest; but such charge is to be subject to the terms and conditions provided by the said Act, and before the same can become effective the amount of money expended as aforesaid is to be stated by me by way of endorsement on this Certificate.

ORDERS OF COURT,

Tuesday, the 6th day of March, in the 23rd Year of the Reign of her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1860.

I.

From and after the 15th day of April, 1860, the practice of engrossing answers on parchment shall be discontinued, and a defendant (except as otherwise provided by Order No. 5) is to file his answer, written bookwise upon paper of the same size and description as that on which Bills are printed.

II.

At the time when a defendant files his answer, he is to leave with the Clerks of Records and Writs a fair copy thereof, (without the Schedules, if any, of accounts or documents,) and the Clerks of Records and Writs are to examine and correct such copy with the answer filed, and return it, so examined, with a certificate thereon that it is correct and proper to be printed.

III.

A defendant is then to cause his answer to be printed from such certified copy, on paper of the same size and description, and in the same type, style, and manner on and in which Bills are required to be printed, and before the expiration of four days from the filing of his answer, is to leave a printed copy thereof with the Clerks of Records and Writs, with a written certificate thereon by the defendant's solicitor, or by the defendant if defending in person, that such print is a true copy of the copy of the answer so certified; and if such printed copy shall not be so left, the defendant shall be subject to the same liabilities as if no answer had been filed.

IV.

At any time after the expiration of such four days, the defendant, within forty-eight hours after the same shall have been demanded in writing, is to have ready for delivery to the plaintiff an official and certified printed copy of the answer.

V.

Notwithstanding the preceding Orders, a defendant is to be at liberty to swear to and file a printed answer.

VI.

On receiving from the plaintiff a demand for an official and certified printed copy of the answer, the defendant is to get a printed copy thereof examined by the Clerks of Records and Writs with the answer as filed, and to stamp such copy with a Chancery stamp for 5s., and the Clerks of Records and Writs, on finding that such copy is duly stamped and correct, are to certify thereon that the same is a correct copy, and to mark the same as an office copy.

VII.

Such copy is, on demand, to be delivered to the plaintiff, who, on receipt thereof, is to pay to the defendant the amount of the stamp thereon, and at the rate of 4d. per folio for the same.

VIII.

The plaintiff is also to be entitled to demand and receive from the defendant any additional number of printed copies of his answer, not exceeding ten, on payment for the same at the rate of one halfpenny per folio.

IX.

After all the defendants who are required to answer shall have filed their answers, a co-defendant is to be entitled to demand and receive from any other defendant any number of printed copies of his answer, not exceeding six, on payment for the same at the rate of one halfpenny per folio.

X.

Office copies of Schedules to answers of accounts or documents, are to be obtained according to the practice now existing for obtaining office copies of answers.

XI.

Where a plaintiff is required to answer interrogatories, he is to file his answer thereto, and to get such answer printed, and to furnish printed copies thereof, in the same manner as a defendant is by these Orders required to do with respect to his answer.

XII.

The Clerks of Records and Writs are not to certify or mark any printed copy of an answer which has any alteration or interlineation in writing.

XIII.

No costs are to be allowed, either as between party and party or as between solicitor and client, for any written brief of an answer, unless the Court shall direct the allowance thereof.

XIV.

Solicitors are to be entitled to charge the fees mentioned in the Schedule hereto.

XV.

These Orders are not to apply to answers filed by defendants or by plaintiffs defending or suing in forma pauperis, except Order I.

XVI.

Written Bills, Pleas, Demurrers, Special Cases, Duplicates of Summonses originating proceedings in Chambers, Records for trial, Interrogatories, Examinations, Traversing Notes, Replications, Supplemental Statements, Exceptions and Certificates to be filed in the office of the Clerks of Records and Writs, are to be written on paper of the same description and size as that on which Bills are printed.

Affidavits to be filed in the office of the Clerks of Records and Writs, are to be written on foolscap paper bookwise. Depositions of Witnesses are to be written on foolscap paper bookwise or briefwise as the Examiner may think fit. Provided nevertheless, that the Clerks of Records and Writs may receive and file Affidavits and Depositions written otherwise than as here directed, if, in their opinion, the circumstances of the case render such reception and filing desirable or necessary.

XVII.

II.

Every such Petition, or the printed copy thereof, so filed shall be marked with the words "Lord Chancellor" or "Master of the Rolls," and if with the words "Lord Chancellor," then also with the title of the Vice-Chancellor before whom it is intended to be prosecuted.

III.

II.

Such affidavits and depositions shall be printed under the direction and superintendence of the Clerks of Records and Writs, upon paper of such kind and dimensions and with such type as are prescribed by the General Order for the printing of Bills, and in all other respects in such form and manner as the Clerks of Records and Writs shall deem to be most convenient, and the expense of such printing shall be paid out of the same fund and in like manner as the expense of making office copies is now paid.

VIII.

Solicitors are to be allowed, on the taxation of costs, the same fees for printed copies of the affidavits and depositions used for the Briefs of Counsel as Solicitors are now allowed for written copies; and in country agency causes they are also to be allowed at the rate of fourpence per folio for one other printed copy of the affidavits and depositions of the opposite party, but for all other printed copies which may be necessarily used in the progress of the cause, Solicitors are to be allowed only the sums actually paid for the same.

ORDER OF COURT.

Friday, the 16th day of May, 1862.

---

THE Right Honorable RICHARD BARON WESTBURY, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, by and with the advice and assistance of the Right Honorable Sir JOHN ROMILLY, Master of the Rolls, The Honorable the Vice-Chancellor Sir RICHARD TORIN KINDERSLEY, The Honorable the Vice-Chancellor Sir JOHN STUART, and the Honorable the Vice-Chancellor Sir WILLIAM PAGE WOOD, Doth hereby, in pursuance and execution of the powers given by the Statute 15th and 16th Victoria, chapter 86, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, Order and direct in manner following:—

I.

All affidavits and depositions which are to be used on the hearing of any cause in which issue shall be joined, or a notice of motion for a decree served after the eighteenth day of June, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, shall be printed except as hereinafter mentioned.

of an Official Liquidator, and for the proof of debts, and for the List of Contributories to be brought in, and directions may be given as to the advertisements to be issued for all or any of such purposes, and generally as to the proceedings and the parties to attend thereon. The proceedings under the Order shall be continued by adjournment, and, when necessary, by further summons, and any such direction as aforesaid may be given, added to, or varied, at any subsequent time, as may be found necessary.

OFFICIAL LIQUIDATOR.

8. The Judge may appoint a person to the office of Official Liquidator, without previous advertisement, or notice to any party, or fix a time and place for the appointment of an Official Liquidator, and may appoint or reject any person nominated at such time and place, and appoint any person not so nominated.

9. When a time and place are fixed for the appointment of an Official Liquidator, such time and place shall be advertised in such manner as the Judge shall direct, so that the first or only advertisement shall be published within fourteen days and not less than seven days before the day so fixed.

10. Every Official Liquidator shall give security by entering into a recognizance with two or more sufficient sureties, in such sum as the Judge may approve; and the Judge may, if he shall think fit, accept the security of any Guarantee Society established by Charter or Act of Parliament in England, in lieu of the security of such sureties as aforesaid, or of any of them.

11. The Official Liquidator shall be appointed by Order; and unless he shall have given security, a time shall be fixed by such Order within which he is to do so; and the Order shall fix the times or periods at which the Official Liquidator is to leave his accounts of his receipts and payments at the Judge's Chambers, and shall direct that all moneys to be received shall be paid into the Bank of England, immediately after the receipt thereof, to the account of the Official Liquidator of the Company, and an account shall be opened there accordingly; and an office copy of the Order shall be lodged at the Bank of England.

12. When an Official Liquidator has given security pursuant to the directions in the Order appointing him, the same shall be certified by the Chief Clerk, as in the case of a Receiver appointed in a Cause, subject to giving security.

13. The Official Liquidator shall, on each occasion of passing his account, and also whensoever the Judge may so require, satisfy the Judge that his sureties are living, and resident in Great Britain, and have not been adjudged bankrupt or become insolvent, and in default thereof he may be required to enter into fresh security within such time as shall be directed.

14. Every appointment of an Official Liquidator shall be advertised, in such manner as the Judge shall direct, immediately after he has been appointed, and has given security.

15. Where it is desired to appoint provisionally an Official Liquidator, an application for that purpose may, at any time after the presentation of the Petition for winding-up the Company, be made by summons, without advertisement or notice to any person, unless the Judge shall otherwise direct ; and such provisional Official Liquidator may, if the Judge shall think fit, be appointed without security.

16. In case of the death, removal or resignation of an Official Liquidator, another shall be appointed in his room, in the same manner as directed in the case of a first appointment, and the proceedings for that purpose may be taken by such party interested as may be authorized by the Judge to take the same.

17. The Official Liquidator shall, with all convenient speed after he is appointed, proceed to make up, continue, complete, and rectify the books of account of the Company ; and shall provide and keep such books of account as shall be necessary, or as the Judge may direct, for the purposes aforesaid, and for showing the debts and credits of the Company, including a ledger which shall contain the separate accounts of the Contributories, and in which every Contributory shall be debited from time to time with the amount payable by him in respect of any Call to be made as provided by the said Act and these Rules.

18. The Official Liquidator shall be allowed in his accounts, or otherwise paid, such salary or remuneration as the Judge may from time to time direct, including any necessary employment of Assistants or Clerks by the Official Liquidator, to which regard shall be had ; and such salary or remuneration may either be fixed at the time of his appointment, or at any time thereafter, as the Judge may think fit. Every allowance of such salary or remuneration, unless made at the time of his appointment, or upon passing an account, shall be made upon application for that purpose by the Official Liquidator, on notice to such persons (if any), and supported by such evidence as the Judge shall require; nevertheless, the Judge may from time to time allow any sum he may think fit to the Official Liquidator, on account of the salary or remuneration to be thereafter allowed.

19. The accounts of the Official Liquidator shall be left at the Judge's Chambers at the times directed by the Order appointing him, and at such other times as may from time to time be required by the Judge, and such accounts shall, upon notice to such parties (if any) as the Judge shall direct, be passed and verified in the same manner as Receivers' accounts.

PROOF OF DEBTS.

20. For the purpose of ascertaining the debts and claims due from the Company, and of requiring the Creditors to come in and prove their debts or claims, an advertisement shall be issued at such time as the Judge shall direct; and such advertisement shall fix a time for the Creditors to send their names and addresses, and the particulars of their debts or claims, and the names and addresses of their Solicitors (if any) to the Official Liquidator, and appoint a day for adjudicating thereon.

21. The Creditors need not attend upon the adjudication, nor prove their debts or claims, unless they are required to do so by notice from the Official Liquidator ; but upon such notice being given, they are to come in and prove their debts or claims within a time to be therein specified.

22. The Official Liquidator shall investigate the debts and claims sent in to him, and ascertain, so far as he is able, which of such debts and claims are justly due from the Company ; and he shall make out and leave at the Chambers of the Judge, a list of all the debts and claims sent in to him, distinguishing which of the debts and claims, or parts of debts and claims so claimed, are, in his opinion, justly due and proper to be allowed without further evidence, and which of them, in his opinion, ought to be proved by the Creditors ; and he shall make and file, prior to the time appointed for adjudication, an affidavit, setting forth which of the debts and claims in his opinion are justly due and proper to be allowed without further evidence, and stating his belief that such debts and claims are justly due and proper to be allowed, and the reasons for such belief.

23. At the time appointed for adjudicating upon the debts and claims, or at any adjournment thereof, the Judge may either allow the debts and claims upon the affidavit of the Official Liquidator, or may require the same, or any of them, to be proved by the claimants, and adjourn the adjudication thereon to a time to be then fixed ; and the Official Liquidator shall give notice to the Creditors whose debts or claims have been so allowed, of such allowance.

24. The Official Liquidator shall give notice to the Creditors whose debts or claims have not been allowed upon his affidavit, that they are required to come in and prove the same by a day to be therein named, being not less than four days after such notice, and to attend at a time to be therein named, being the time appointed by the advertisement, or by adjournment (as the case may be) for adjudicating upon such debts and claims.

25. The value of such debts and claims as are made admissible to proof by the 158th Section of the said Act, shall, so far as is possible, be estimated according to the value thereof at the date of the Order to wind-up the Company.

26. Interest on such debts and claims as shall be allowed shall be computed, as to such of them as carry interest, after the rate they respectively carry ; any Creditor whose debt or claim so allowed does not carry interest, shall be entitled to interest, after the rate of £4 per centum per annum, from the date of the Order to wind-up the Company, out of any assets which may remain after satisfying the costs of the winding-up, the debts and claims established, and the interest of such debts and claims as by law carry interest.

27. Such Creditors as come in and prove their debts or claims pursuant to notice from the Official Liquidator, shall be allowed their costs of proof, in the same manner as in the case of debts proved in a Cause.

28. The result of the adjudication upon debts and claims shall be stated in a certificate to be made by the Chief Clerk, and certificates as to any of such debts and claims may be made from time to time. All such certificates shall state whether the debts or claims are allowed or disallowed, and whether allowed as against any particular assets, or in any other qualified or special manner.

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORIES.

29. The Official Liquidator shall, with all convenient speed after his appointment, or at such time as the Judge shall direct, make out and leave at the Chambers of the Judge a list of the Contributories of the Company ; and such list shall be verified by the Affidavit of the Official Liquidator, and shall, so far as is practicable, state the respective addresses of, and the number of shares or extent of interest to be attributed to each such Contributory, and distinguish the several classes of Contributories. And such list may from time to time, by leave of the Judge, be varied or added to, by the Official Liquidator.

30. Upon the list of Contributories being left at the Chambers of the Judge, the Official Liquidator shall obtain an appointment for the Judge to settle the same, and shall give notice in writing of such appointment to every person included in such list, and stating in what character, and for what number of Shares, or interest such person is included in the list ; and, in case any variation or addition to such list shall at any time be made by the Official Liquidator, a similar notice in writing shall be given to every person to whom such variation or addition applies. All such notices shall be served four clear days before the day appointed to settle such list, or such variation or addition.

31. The result of the settlement of the list of Contributories shall be stated in a certificate by the Chief Clerk ; and certificates may be made from time to time for the purpose of stating the result of such settlement down to any particular time, or as to any particular person, or stating any variation of the list.

SALES OF PROPERTY.

32. Any real or personal property belonging to the Company may be sold with the approbation of the Judge, in the same manner as in the case of a Sale under a Decree or Order of the Court in a Suit, or, if the Judge shall so direct, by the Official Liquidator; and upon any such Sale by the Official Liquidator, the Conditions or Contracts of Sale shall be settled and approved of by the Judge, unless he shall otherwise direct; and the Judge may, if he thinks fit, direct such Conditions and Contracts, and the abstract of the title to the property, to be submitted to one of the Conveyancing Council of the Court, under the 2nd of the Consolidated General Orders, and may, on any sale by public auction, fix a reserved bidding; and, unless on account of the small amount of the purchase moneys or other cause, it shall, having regard to the amount of the security given by the Official Liquidator, be thought proper that the purchase moneys shall be paid to him, all Conditions and Contracts of Sale shall provide that the purchase moneys shall be paid by the respective purchasers into the Bank of England, to the account of the Official Liquidator of the Company.

CALLS.

33. Every application to the Judge to make any Call on the Contributories or any of them, for any purpose authorised by the said Act, shall be made by Summons, stating the proposed amount of such Call; and such Summons shall be served, four clear days at the least before the day appointed for making the Call, on every Contributory proposed to be included in such Call; or if the Judge shall so direct, notice of such intended Call may be given by advertisement.

34. When any Order for a Call has been made, a copy thereof shall be forthwith served upon each of the Contributories included in such Call, together with a notice from the Official Liquidator specifying the amount or balance due from such Contributory (having regard to the provisions of the said Act) in respect of such Call; but such Order need not be advertised unless, for any special reason, the Judge shall so direct.

35. At the time of making an Order for a Call, the further proceedings relating thereto shall be adjourned to a time subsequent to the day appointed for the payment thereof, and afterwards from time to time so long as may be necessary; and at the time appointed by any such adjournment, or upon a summons to enforce payment of the Call, duly served, and upon proof of the service of the Order and notice of the amount due, and non-payment, an Order may be made for such of the Contributories who have made default, or of such of them against whom it shall be thought proper to make such Order, to pay the sum which by such former Order and notice they were respectively required to pay, or any less sum which may appear to be due from them respectively.

PAYMENT IN OF MONEYS AND DEPOSIT OF SECURITIES.

36. If any Official Liquidator shall not pay all the moneys received by him into the Bank of England, to the account of the Official Liquidator of the Company, within seven days next after the receipt thereof, unless the Judge shall have otherwise directed, such Official Liquidator shall be charged in his account with ten shillings for every £100, and a proportionate sum for any larger amount, retained in his hands beyond such period, for every seven days during which the same shall have been so retained, and the Judge may, for any such retention, disallow the salary or remuneration of such Official Liquidator.

37. All bills, notes, and other securities payable to the Company or to the Official Liquidator thereof shall, as soon as they shall come to the hands of such Official Liquidator, be deposited by him in the Bank of England for the purpose of being presented by the Bank for acceptance and payment, or for payment only, as the case may be.

38. All Orders for payment of Calls, balances, or other moneys due from any Contributory or other person, shall direct the same to be paid into the Bank of England, to the account of the Official Liquidator of the Company, unless, on account of the smallness of the amount or other cause, it shall, having regard to the amount of the security given by the Official Liquidator, be thought proper to direct payment thereof to the Official Liquidator. Provided that where any such Order has been made directing payment of a specific sum into the Bank of England, in case it shall be thought proper for the purpose of enabling the Official Liquidator to issue execution or take other proceedings to enforce the payment thereof, or for any other reason, an Order may, either before service of such former Order, or after the time thereby fixed for payment, be made, without notice, for payment of the same sum to the Official Liquidator.

39. At the time of the service of any Order for payment into the Bank of England, the Official Liquidator shall give to the party served a notice, to the purport or effect set forth in Form No. 40 in the third Schedule hereto, for the purpose of informing him how the payment is to be made ; and before the time fixed for such payment, the Official Liquidator shall furnish the Cashier of the Bank of England with a certificate, to the purport or effect set forth in Form No. 41 in the third Schedule hereto, to be signed by such Cashier, and delivered to the party paying in the money therein-mentioned.

40. For the purpose of enforcing any Order for payment of money into the Bank of England an affidavit of the Official Liquidator, to the purport or effect set forth in Form No. 43 in the third Schedule hereto, shall be sufficient evidence of the non-payment thereof.

41. All moneys, bills, notes, and other securities paid and delivered into the Bank of England, shall be placed to the credit of the account of the Official Liquidator of the Company ; and Orders for any such payment and delivery shall direct the same accordingly.

DELIVERY OUT OF SECURITIES, AND PAYMENT OUT AND INVESTMENT OF MONEYS.

42. All bills, notes, and other securities delivered into the Bank of England, shall be delivered out upon a request signed by the Official Liquidator, and countersigned by the Chief Clerk of the Judge ; and moneys placed to the account of the Official Liquidator shall be paid out upon Cheques or Orders, signed by the Official Liquidator, and countersigned by the Chief Clerk of the Judge.

43. All or any part of the money for the time being standing to the credit of the account of the Official Liquidator at the Bank of England, and not immediately required for the purposes of the winding-up, may be invested in the purchase of Bank £3 per Cent. Annuities, Reduced £3 per Cent. Annuities, New £3 per Cent. Annuities, or New £2. 10s. per Cent. Annuities, in the name of the Official Liquidator, or in the purchase of exchequer bills. All such investments shall be made by the Bank of England, upon a request signed by the Official Liquidator, and countersigned by the Chief Clerk of the Judge, and which request shall be a sufficient authority for debiting the account with the purchase money; and such exchequer bills, and in case of an exchange thereof any new exchequer bills, shall be retained by or deposited with the Bank of England, in the name and on behalf of the Official Liquidator; and such annuities or exchequer bills shall not afterwards be sold or transferred or otherwise dealt with except upon a direction for that purpose, signed by the Official Liquidator, and countersigned by the Chief Clerk of the Judge, or under an Order to be made by the Judge.

44. All dividends and interest to accrue due upon any such annuities, shall from time to time be received by the Bank of England, under a power of attorney to be executed by the Official Liquidator, and placed to the credit of the account of such Official Liquidator; and such of the exchequer bills as shall from time to time be in course of payment, shall be delivered by the Bank of England to one of their cashiers, who is to receive the interest due thereon, and exchange the same for new bills, in case such new bills are issued, or otherwise to receive the principal and interest due on such of the said bills, so in course of payment, as cannot be exchanged, and pay the said interest, or principal and interest, as the case may be, into the Bank of England to the credit of the account of the Official Liquidator of the Company.

MEETINGS OF CREDITORS OR CONTRIBUTORIES.

45. When the Judge shall direct a meeting of the Creditors or Contributories of the Company to be summoned under the 91st or 149th Section of the said Act, the Official Liquidator shall give notice in writing seven clear days before the day appointed for such meeting, to every Creditor or Contributory, of the time and place appointed for such meeting, and of the matter upon which the Judge desires to ascertain the wishes of the Creditors or Contributories; or, if the Judge shall so direct, such notice may be given by advertisement, in which case the object of the meeting need not be stated, and it shall not be necessary to insert such advertisement in the "London Gazette."

46. The votes of the Creditors or Contributories of the Company at any Meeting summoned by the direction of the Judge, may be given either personally or by proxy; but no Creditor shall appoint a proxy who is not a creditor of the Company whose debt or claim has been allowed, and no Contributory shall appoint a proxy who is not a Contributory of the Company.

47. The direction of the Judge for any Meeting of Creditors or Contributories under the 91st or 149th Section of the said Act, and the appointment of a person to act as Chairman of any such Meeting, shall be testified by a memorandum signed by the Chief Clerk of the Judge.

DIRECTION OR SANCTION OF THE JUDGE.

48. The sanction of the Judge to the drawing, accepting, making, and endorsing of any bill of exchange or promissory note by any Official Liquidator, shall be testified by a memorandum on such bill of exchange or promissory note, signed by the Chief Clerk of the Judge.

49. Every application for the sanction of the Judge to a compromise with any Contributory or other person indebted to the Company, shall be supported by the affidavit of the Official Liquidator that he has investigated the affairs of such Contributory or person, and stating his belief that the proposed compromise will be beneficial to the Company, and his reasons for such belief; and the sanction of the Judge thereto shall be testified by a memorandum, signed by the Chief Clerk of the Judge, on the agreement of compromise, unless any party shall desire to appeal from the decision of the Judge, in which case an Order shall be drawn up for that purpose.

50. The direction or sanction of the Judge for any other proceeding or act to be taken or done by the Official Liquidator, shall be obtained upon summons, and an Order shall be drawn up thereon, unless the Judge shall otherwise direct.

APPLICATIONS TO THE COURT OR JUDGE UNDER SS. 137, 138, 141, 167, AND 168, OF THE ACT.

51. Every application under the 137th, 138th or 141st Section of the said Act shall be made by petition or motion, or, if the Judge shall so direct, by summons at Chambers; and every application under the 167th or 168th Section of the said Act shall be made by petition.

ORDERS.

52. All Orders made in Chambers shall be drawn up in Chambers, unless specially directed to be drawn up by the Registrar, and shall be entered in the same manner, and in the same office, as other Orders made in Chambers.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

53. When an Advertisement is required for any purpose, except where otherwise directed by these Rules, the Advertisement shall be inserted once in the "London Gazette," and in such other newspaper or newspapers, and for such number of times as may be directed. The Judge may, in such cases as he shall think fit, dispense with any advertisement required by these Rules.

ADMISSION OF DOCUMENTS.

54. Any party to any proceeding in Court or Chambers relating to the winding-up of a company may, by notice in writing in the Form No. 6, in Schedule N. to the Consolidated General Orders, or to the like effect, call on any other party thereto competent to admit the same, to admit any document saving all just exceptions; and in case of refusal or neglect so to admit, the costs of proving such document shall be paid by the party so refusing or neglecting, unless the Judge shall be of opinion that the refusal to admit was reasonable; and no costs of proving any document shall be allowed unless such notice shall have been given, except in cases where the omission to give such notice has been, in the opinion of the Taxing Master, a saving of expense.

AFFIDAVITS.

55. Where an Order shall have been made for the winding-up of any Company, any person intending to use any Affidavit in any proceeding under such Order, shall file the same in the Record and Writ Clerks' Office, and give notice thereof to the Official Liquidator. The person, other than the Official Liquidator, filing the Affidavit shall not be required to take an office copy thereof, but an office copy thereof shall be taken by the Official Liquidator, and he shall produce the same at the hearing of any application or proceeding upon which it is intended to be used, unless the Judge shall otherwise direct.

CERTIFICATE OF CHIEF CLERK.

56. The 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd and 55th rules of the 35th of the Consolidated General Orders, shall apply to all certificates of the Chief Clerk in the matter of the winding-up of any Company; nevertheless, certificates on passing the Official Liquidator's accounts may be approved and signed by the Judge without delay, and upon being so signed, shall be filed and forthwith acted upon.

REGISTER AND FILE OF PROCEEDINGS.

57. A Register shall be kept of all proceedings in the Judge's Chambers, in each matter, in the same manner as required by the 57th Rule of the 35th of the Consolidated General Orders, and no documents or proceedings are to be filed in the Judge's Chambers, unless the Judge shall otherwise direct.

58. All orders, exhibits, admissions, memorandums, and office copies of affidavits, examinations, depositions, and certificates, and all other documents relating to the winding-up of any Company, shall be filed by the Official Liquidator, as far as may be, in one continuous file, and such file shall be kept by him or otherwise, as the Judge may from time to time direct. Every Contributory of the Company, and every Creditor thereof whose debt or claim has been allowed, shall be entitled, at all reasonable times, to inspect such file free of charge, and, at his own expense, to take copies or extracts from any of the documents comprised therein, or to be furnished with such copies or extracts at a rate not exceeding three half-pence per folio of seventy-two words; and such file shall be produced in Court, or before the Judge, and otherwise, as occasion may require.

PROVISIONAL OFFICIAL LIQUIDATORS.

59. All the above Rules relating to Official Liquidators, shall, so far as the same are applicable, and subject to the directions of the Judge in each case, apply to Provisional Official Liquidators.

ATTENDANCE AND APPEARANCE OF PARTIES.

60. Every person, for the time being, on the list of Contributories of the Company, left at the Chambers of the Judge by the Official Liquidator, and every person having a debt or claim against the Company, allowed by the Judge, shall be at liberty, at his own expense, to attend the proceedings before the Judge, and shall be entitled, upon payment of the costs occasioned thereby, to have notice of all such proceedings as he shall by written request desire to have notice of; but if the Judge shall be of opinion that the attendance of any such person upon any proceeding has occasioned any additional costs which ought not to be borne by the funds of the Company, he may direct such costs, or a gross sum in lieu thereof, to be paid by such person; and such person shall not be entitled to attend any further proceedings until he has paid the same.

61. The Judge may from time to time appoint any one or more of the Contributories, or Creditors, as he thinks fit, to represent before him, at the expense of the Company, all or any class of the Contributories or Creditors, upon any question as to a compromise with any of the Contributories or Creditors, or in and about any other proceedings before him relating to the winding-up of the Company, and may remove the person or persons so appointed. In case more than one person shall be so appointed, they shall unite in employing the same Solicitor to represent them.

62. No Contributory or Creditor shall be entitled to attend any proceedings at the Chambers of the Judge, unless and until he has entered in a book to be kept there for that purpose his name and address, and the name and address of his solicitor (if any), and upon any change of his address or of his solicitor, his new address, and the name and address of his new solicitor.

SERVICES OF SUMMONSES, NOTICES, &c.

63. Services upon Contributories and Creditors shall be effected (except when personal service is required) by sending the notice, or a copy of the summons or order or other proceeding, through the post in a pre-paid letter, addressed to the solicitor of the party to be served (if any) or otherwise to the party himself at the address entered or last entered pursuant to the preceding Rule ; or if no such entry has been made, then, if a Contributory, to his last known address or place of abode ; and if a Creditor, to the address given by him, pursuant to the foregoing Rule 20 ; and such notice, or copy summons, order, or other proceeding, shall be considered as served at the time the same ought to be delivered in the due course of delivery by the post-office, and notwithstanding the same may be returned by the post-office.

64. No service under these Rules shall be deemed invalid by reason that the Christian name, or any of the Christian names of the person on whom service is sought to be made, has been omitted, or designated by initial letters, in the List of Contributories, or in the summons, order, notice, or other document wherein the name of such Contributory or Creditor is contained, provided the Judge is satisfied that such service is in other respects sufficient.

TERMINATION OF WINDING-UP.

65. Upon the termination of the proceedings in Chambers for the winding-up of any Company, a balance-sheet shall be brought in by the Official Liquidator of his receipts and payments, and verified by his affidavit ; and the Official Liquidator shall pass his final account, and the balance (if any) due thereon shall be certified. And upon payment of such balance, in such manner as the Court or Judge shall direct, the recognisance entered into by the Official Liquidator and his sureties may be vacated.

66. When the Official Liquidator has passed his final account, and the balance (if any) certified to be due thereon has been paid in such manner as the Judge shall direct, a Certificate shall be made by the Chief Clerk, that the affairs of the Company have been completely wound-up ; and in case the Company has not been already dissolved, the Official Liquidator shall, immediately after such Certificate has become binding, apply to the Judge for an Order that the Company be dissolved from the date of such Order.

67. When the proceedings for winding-up any Company have been completed, the file of proceedings, and the book containing the Official Liquidator's account, shall be deposited in the Record and Writ Clerks' Office.

DUTIES OF SOLICITOR OF OFFICIAL LIQUIDATOR.

68. The solicitor of the Official Liquidator shall conduct all such proceedings as are ordinarily conducted by solicitors of the Court ; and where the attendance of his solicitor is required on any proceeding in Court or Chambers, the Official Liquidator need not attend in person, except in cases where his presence is necessary in addition to that of his solicitor, or the Judge shall direct him to attend.

FORMS.

69. The forms set forth or referred to in the third Schedule to these Orders, with such variations as the circumstances of each case may require, may be used for the respective purposes mentioned in such Schedule.

FEES.

70. Solicitors shall be entitled to charge, and be allowed the fees set forth and referred to in the first Schedule hereto, unless the Court or Judge shall otherwise specially direct.

71. The fees of Court set forth and referred to in the second Schedule hereto, shall be paid in relation to proceedings in the Court of Chancery under the Companies Act, 1862, and shall be collected by means of stamps, in the manner prescribed by the 39th of the Consolidated General Orders.

TAXATION OF COSTS.

72. Where an Order is made in Court or Chambers for payment of any costs, the Order shall direct the taxation thereof by the Taxing Master; except in cases where a gross sum in lieu of taxed costs is fixed by the Order, in accordance with the 37th Rule of the 40th of the Consolidated General Orders.

POWER OF JUDGE.

73. The power of the Court, and of the Judge sitting in Chambers, to enlarge or abridge the time for doing any act, or taking any proceeding, to adjourn, or review any proceeding and to give any direction as to the course of proceeding, is unaffected by these Rules.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS.

74. The general practice of the Court, including the course of proceeding and practice at the Judges' Chambers, as provided by the Statute 15th and 16th Victoria, Chapter 80, and the General Orders of the Court relative thereto, shall, in cases not provided for by the Companies Act, 1862, or these Rules, and so far as the same are applicable, and not inconsistent with the said Act, or these Rules, apply to all proceedings for winding-up a Company.

APPLICATION OF RULES.

75. These Rules apply only to proceedings under the Companies Act, 1862.

COMMENCEMENT OF RULES.

76. These Rules shall take effect and come into operation on and after the 25th day of November, 1862.

INTERPRETATION.

77. The 1st Rule of the 23rd of the Consolidated General Orders, and the General Interpretation Clause therein, shall be deemed to extend and apply to the Rules of this Order; and such Rules shall have the effect of, and be deemed to be General Orders of the Court.

No. 31. Certificate of Chief Clerk of Settlement of the List of Contributories. [Rule 31.]

In the Matter, &c.

In pursuance of the directions given to me by the Master of the Rolls [or, Vice-Chancellor                      ], I hereby certify that the result of the settlement of the List of Contributories of the above-named Company, made out and left at the Chambers of the said Judge by the Official Liquidator of the said Company on the                      day of                      186 , pursuant to the above Statute and the General Order of this Court in that behalf, so far as the said List has been settled up to the date of this Certificate is as follows :—

No. 33. Affidavit of Official Liquidator in support of proposal for Call. [Rule 33.]

In the Matter, &c.

1. I have, in the Schedule now produced and shown to me, and marked with the letter A, set forth a statement, showing the amount due in respect of the debts allowed against the said Company, and the estimated amount of the costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the winding-up the affairs thereof, and which several amounts form in the aggregate the sum of £                      or thereabouts.

2. I have also in the said Schedule set forth a statement of the assets in hand belonging to the said Company, amounting to the sum of £                      and no more. There are no other assets belonging to the said Company, except the amounts due from certain of the Contributories of the said Company, and, to the best of my information and belief, it will be impossible to realise in respect of the said amounts more than the sum of £ or thereabouts.

8. It appears by the Chief Clerk's Certificate, dated the day of 186 , that persons have been settled on the List of Contributories of the said Company, in respect of the total number of Shares.

4. For the purpose of satisfying the several debts and liabilities of the said Company, and of paying the costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the winding-up the affairs thereof, I believe the sum of £ will be required, in addition to the amount of the assets of the said Company mentioned in the said Schedule A, and the said sum of £ .

5. In order to provide the said sum of £ , it is necessary to make a Call upon the several persons who have been settled on the List of Contributories as before mentioned, and having regard to the probability that some of such Contributories will partly or wholly fail to pay the amount of such Call, I believe that for the purpose of realising the amount required as before mentioned, it is necessary that a Call of £ per Share should be made.

ORDER OF COURT,

Thursday, the 12th day of February, 1863.

---

WHEREAS by reason of the growing increase of the business of this Court, the number of Certificates and documents of the like nature requiring the signature of the Accountant-General has become so great as inconveniently to interfere with his discharge of other and indispensable duties; Now therefore, upon reading an Act of Parliament passed in the Twelfth year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First, intituled, "An Act for better securing the monies and effects of the Suitors of the Court of Chancery, and to prevent the counterfeiting of East India Bonds, and endorsements thereon, as likewise endorsements on South Sea Bonds" I do order that all Certificates of Funds in Court, and of transactions that have been recorded in the books of the Accountant-General; that is to say, payment of cash into Court, sales, purchases, transfers and acceptances of stock, and carryings over of Funds from one account to another, shall be signed by the Chief Clerk of the Accountant-General for the time being, in his own name, as for and on behalf of the said Accountant-General.

ORDER OF COURT,

Saturday, the 27th day of May,

1865.

THE Right HONORABLE RICHARD BARON WESTBURY, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, with the advice and consent of the RIGHT HONORABLE SIR JOHN ROMILLY, Master of the Rolls, the HONORABLE the VICE-CHANCELLOR, SIR RICHARD TORIN KINDERSLEY, the HONORABLE the VICE-CHANCELLOR, SIR JOHN STUART, and the HONORABLE the VICE-CHANCELLOR, SIR WILLIAM PAGE WOOD, Doth hereby, in pursuance and execution of the powers given by the Statutes 13th and 14th Victoria, chapter 35, and 15th and 16th Victoria, chapter 80, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, Order and direct in manner following:—

1. EVERY Advertisement for Creditors affecting the estate of a deceased person, which shall be issued pursuant to any Decree or Order, shall direct every Creditor, by a time to be thereby limited, to send to the Executor or Administrator of the deceased, or to such other party as the Judge shall direct, or to his Solicitor, to be named and described in such Advertisement, the name and address of such Creditor, and the full particulars of his claim, and a statement of his account, and the nature of the security (if any) held by him; and such Advertisement shall be in the form numbered 1 in the second Schedule hereto, with such variations as the circumstances of the case may require; and at the time of directing such Advertisement a time shall be fixed for adjudicating on the claims.

Rule 2. 2. No Creditor need make any affidavit nor attend in support of his claim (except to produce his Security), unless he is served with a notice requiring him to do so, as hereinafter provided.

Rule 3. 3. Every Creditor shall produce the Security (if any) held by him, before the Judge, at such time as shall be specified in the Advertisement for that purpose, being the time appointed for adjudicating on the claims; and every Creditor shall, if required by notice in writing, to be given by the Executor or Administrator of the deceased, or by such other party as the Judge shall direct, produce all other deeds and documents necessary to substantiate his claim before the Judge, at his chambers, at such time as shall be specified in such notice.

Rule 4. 4. In case any Creditor shall neglect or refuse to comply with the preceding Rule numbered 3, he shall not be allowed any costs of proving his claim, unless the Judge shall otherwise direct.

Rule 5. 5. The Executor or Administrator of the deceased, or such other party as the Judge shall direct, shall examine the claims sent in pursuant to the Advertisement, and shall ascertain, so far as he is able, to which of such claims the estate of the deceased is justly liable; and he shall, at least seven clear days prior to the time appointed for adjudication, file an Affidavit, to be made by such Executor or Administrator, or one of the Executors or Administrators, or such other party, either alone or jointly with his Solicitor, or other competent person, or otherwise as the Judge shall direct, verifying a list of the claims the particulars of which have been sent in pursuant to the Advertisement, and stating to which of such claims, or parts thereof respectively, the estate of the deceased is, in the opinion of the Deponent, justly liable, and his belief that such claims, or parts thereof respectively, are justly due and proper to be allowed, and the reasons for such belief.

6. In case the Judge shall think fit so to direct, the making of the Affidavit referred to in the preceding Rule numbered 5, shall be postponed till after the day appointed for adjudication, and shall then be subject to such directions as the Judge may give.

Rule 6.

7. At the time appointed for adjudicating upon the claims, or at any adjournment thereof, the Judge may, in his discretion, allow any of the claims, or any part thereof respectively, without proof by the Creditors, and direct such investigation of all or any of the claims not allowed, and require such further particulars, information, or evidence, relating thereto, as he may think fit, and may, if he so think fit, require any Creditor to attend and prove his claim, or any part thereof; and the adjudication on such claims as are not then allowed shall be adjourned to a time to be then fixed.

Rule 7.

8. Notice shall be given by the Executor or Administrator, or such other party as the Judge shall direct, to every Creditor whose claim, or any part thereof, has been allowed without proof by the Creditor, of such allowance, and to every such Creditor as the Judge shall direct, to attend and prove his claim, or such part thereof as is not allowed, by a time to be named in such Notice, not being less than seven days after such Notice, and to attend at a time to be therein named, being the time to which the adjudication thereon shall have been adjourned ; and in case any Creditor shall not comply with such notice, his claim, or such part thereof as aforesaid, shall be disallowed.

- Rule 9.     9. Any Creditor who has not before sent in the particulars of his claim pursuant to the Advertisement, may do so four clear days previous to any day to which the adjudication is adjourned.
- Rule 10.    10. After the time fixed by the Advertisement, no claim shall be received (except as before provided in case of an adjournment), unless the Judge shall think fit to give special leave upon application made by Summons, and then upon such terms and conditions as to costs and otherwise as the Judge shall direct.
- Rule 11.    11. The Rules numbered 37, 38, 41, 42, and 43, of the 35th Consolidated General Order are hereby abrogated, in so far only as the same relate to Creditors.
- Rule 12.    12. Where any Decree or Order is made for payments by the Accountant-General to Creditors, the party whose duty it is to prosecute such Decree or Order shall send to each such Creditor, or his Solicitor (if any), a Notice that the Cheques may be received from the Accountant-General; and such party shall, when required, produce such Decree or Order, and any other papers necessary to enable such Creditors to receive their Cheques and get them passed.
- Rule 13.    13. Every Notice by this Order required to be given shall, unless the Judge shall otherwise direct, be deemed sufficiently given and served if transmitted by the post, prepaid, to the Creditor to be served, according to the address given by such Creditor in the claim sent in by him pursuant to the Advertisement, or, in case such Creditor shall have employed a Solicitor, to such Solicitor, according to the address given by him.

14. Solicitors shall be entitled to charge and be allowed the fees set forth and referred to in the first Schedule to this Order, for business done under this Order.

Rule 14.

15. The Forms set forth or referred to in the second Schedule to this Order, with such variations as the circumstances of each case shall require, shall be adopted for the respective purposes therein mentioned.

Rule 15.

16. This Order shall come into operation on and after the 15th day of June, 1865; and the General Interpretation Clause in the Consolidated General Orders shall be deemed to extend to this Order; and the word "Creditor" used in this Order, and in the Forms subjoined hereto, shall include a person claiming any debt or liability affecting the personal estate of a deceased person, under any Order made pursuant to the Statute 13th and 14th Victoria, chapter 35.

ORDER OF COURT,

Tuesday, the Twenty-second day of May, 1866.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 23rd and 24th years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 149 : It was in the 9th Section enacted, that the deeds, books, documents, and papers belonging to the Suitors in the said Court, which had been theretofore under the custody of the Masters in Ordinary of the said Court, should be transferred to the custody of the Clerks of Records and Writs of the said Court, and WILLIAM WORDEN, the Office Keeper at the Offices in Southampton Buildings, Chancery Lane, where such deeds, books, documents, and papers were deposited, should have the care of the same, and should so far as related thereto be considered the Officer of the Clerks of Records and Writs, and should hold such Office at the pleasure of the Master of the Rolls, and that on the death, retirement, or removal of the said WILLIAM WORDEN it should be lawful for the Master of the Rolls to appoint a person to have the care of such deeds, books, documents, and papers, at a yearly salary not exceeding One hundred pounds, and on any vacancy in such office to supply such vacancy.

AND WHEREAS by "The Courts of Justice Building Act, 1865," after reciting that the legal business hitherto carried on in the buildings situate in or near Southampton Buildings, known as the "Masters' Offices," and erected in pursuance of the Act of the Session of the 32nd year of King George the 3rd, chapter 42 was intended to be transacted in the Courts offices and premises authorized to be erected under that Act, and it was expedient that such Masters' Offices should be appropriated in manner hereinafter mentioned for public purposes, it was enacted that all the buildings erected as aforesaid, with the sites thereof, and all the lands and hereditaments if any purchased or acquired in pursuance of the said Act of the 32nd year of King George the 3rd, with all their actual and reputed appurtenances, should on the passing of that Act vest in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's works and public buildings as incorporated by the Act of the Session of the 15th and 16th years of the reign of Her present Majesty; chapter 28, to be held by them for the purposes of the last mentioned Act, discharged from all subsisting trusts declared with respect thereto, provided that the said Commissioners should not take possession of any part or parts of the said buildings that might be occupied for legal purposes until the Lord Chancellor certified that in his opinion such part or parts was or were no longer required by the person so occupying the same.

AND WHEREAS that portion of the said buildings in which the said deeds, books, documents, and papers are now deposited is not well adapted for the purpose, and the greater part of such buildings has been appropriated for the use of the Patent Office, and it is desirable that the said deeds, books, documents, and papers should be deposited and kept in the Public Record Office, where divers records, and documents belonging to the said Court are deposited.

NOW I DO HEREBY ORDER that the said deeds, books, documents, and papers which are now deposited in the said buildings in Chancery Lane aforesaid, shall be removed therefrom, and shall be deposited, and kept in the Public Record Office, and shall there remain and be under the same custody and care as is provided with respect to such deeds, books, documents, and papers by the said ninth Section of the first hereinbefore recited Act.

16. The Petitioners presenting such Petition as aforesaid shall, for the purposes of such Petition, be treated as representing the Company, and the Company shall not otherwise appear on the hearing of such Petition.

17. When any Petition to confirm a Scheme is presented, the Directors shall apply to the Judge in Chambers to appoint the day on which the same is to come into the paper for hearing, such day not to be before the expiration of three weeks from the time of such application, and shall cause a Notice of the presentation thereof to be inserted as follows (that is to say):

(1) In the case of a Company whose principal Office is within ten miles from the General Post Office, in the "London Gazette;" and in such two London daily morning Newspapers as the Judge in Chambers shall direct.

(2) In the case of any other Company, in the "London Gazette," and in such two local Newspapers circulating in the District where the principal Office of such Company is situate, as the Judge in Chambers shall direct.

Such Notice shall, at least once in every entire week, reckoned from Sunday morning to Saturday evening, which shall have elapsed between the time of the first insertion thereof, and the day on which such Petition is directed to come into the paper for hearing, be again inserted in such two London or local Newspapers as aforesaid on such day or days as the Judge in Chambers shall direct.

19. Any Creditor, Shareholder, or other party whose rights or interests are affected by such Scheme, and who shall be desirous to be heard in opposition to the confirmation thereof, shall, at least two clear days before the day on which the Petition for confirmation is directed to come into the paper for hearing, enter an appearance at the Office of the Clerks of Records and Writs; and, in default of so doing, shall not be entitled to be heard, unless by the special leave of the Court.

25. No Petition for a rehearing either before the same Judge or before the Lord Chancellor or the Lords Justices, of the case on which any Order for confirming or Order refusing to confirm a Scheme has been made, shall, unless by the special leave of the Lord Chancellor or the Lords Justices, be presented after the expiration of thirty days, exclusive of vacations, from the day on which such Order was pronounced, notwithstanding that such Order may not have been inrolled.

26. Where an Order has been made for confirming a Scheme, no person who has neither entered an appearance as aforesaid, nor by virtue of such special leave as aforesaid been heard in opposition to the confirmation of the Scheme, shall be at liberty to present a petition for rehearing before the same Judge or before the Lord Chancellor or the Lords Justices, unless the Lord Chancellor or the Lords Justices shall by special Order to be applied for by motion on notice to the Company to be served on their Solicitor or at their principal Office, give leave to such person to present a Petition for a rehearing.

27. Where any Petition for a rehearing of a Petition for confirmation of a Scheme is presented, the same certificate of Counsel, the same subscription by the Petitioner or his Solicitor with respect to costs, and the same deposit shall be requisite as are required for a rehearing when a decree has been made at the hearing of a cause.

28. The inrolment of a Scheme in pursuance of the 18th section of the said Act shall be effected in the same manner as the inrolment of a deed directed by statute to be inrolled in the Court of Chancery.

30. Such Petition shall be served on the Company only, but the Court may at the hearing, if it shall so think fit, adjourn the same for the purpose of service on such other parties, if any, as the Court shall think fit.

31. Every Order appointing a receiver or manager under the last mentioned section shall direct such accounts and inquiries as the Court may think fit for ascertaining the debts of the Company and the rights and priorities of the persons interested in the monies to come to the hands of such Receiver or Manager.

32. Every summons in Chancery under the "Railway Companies Act, 1867," section 5, shall be intituled in the matter of the said Act and in the cause or matter in which the execution in question was issued, and such summons shall be issued out of the Chambers of the Judge to whose Court such cause or matter is attached, and such rules and practice of the Court of Chancery as are applicable to summonses for the purpose of proceedings not originating in Chambers and to the proceedings thereunder shall be applicable to such summons and the proceedings thereunder.

 Master of the Rolls, the HONORABLE the VICE-CHANCELLOR
 SIR JOHN STUART, and the HONORABLE the VICE-CHANCELLOR
 SIR RICHARD MALINS, Doth hereby, in pursuance and execution of the powers given to him by "The Companies' Act, 1867," and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, Order and direct in manner following:—

PETITIONS FOR WINDING-UP.

1. Every Petition which shall after this Order comes into operation be presented for the winding-up of any Company by the Court, or subject to the supervision of the Court, and all notices, affidavits, and other proceedings under such Petition, shall be intituled in the matter of "The Companies' Acts, 1862 and 1867," and of the Company to which such Petition shall relate.

PETITION TO REDUCE CAPITAL.

2. Every Petition for an Order confirming a special resolution for reducing the Capital of a Company, and all notices, affidavits, and other proceedings under such Petition, shall be intituled in the matter of "The Companies' Act, 1867," and of the Company in question.

3. No such Petition as mentioned in the 2nd Rule of this Order shall be placed in the List of Petitions by the Secretary of the Lord Chancellor or of the Master of the Rolls, as the case may be, until after the expiration of eight clear days from the filing of such Certificate as is mentioned in the 14th Rule of this Order.

4. When any such Petition as last aforesaid has been presented, application may be made, ex parte by Summons in Chambers, to the Judge to whose Court the Petition is attached, for directions as to the proceedings to be taken for settling the List of Creditors entitled to object to the proposed reduction, and the Judge may thereupon fix the date with reference to which the List of such Creditors is to be made out, pursuant to the 13th section of the Companies' Act, 1867; and may, either at the same time or afterwards, as he shall think fit, give such directions as are mentioned in the 5th and 6th Rules of this Order. The Order upon such summons may be in the Form No. 1 in the Schedule hereto, with such variations as the circumstances of the case may require.

5. Notice of the presentation of the Petition shall be published at such times, and in such newspapers as the Judge shall direct, so that the first insertion of such notice be made not less than one calendar month before the day of the date fixed as mentioned in the 4th Rule of this Order.

Such notice may be in the Form No. 2 in the Schedule hereto, with such variations as the circumstances of the case may require.

6. The Company shall, within such time as the Judge shall direct, file in the Office of the Clerks of Records and Writs, an Affidavit made by some officer or officers of the Company competent to make the same, verifying a List containing the names and addresses of the Creditors of the Company at the date fixed as mentioned in the 4th Rule of this Order, and the amounts due to them respectively, and leave the said list and an Office Copy of such Affidavit, at the Chambers of the Judge.

7. The person making such Affidavit shall state therein his belief that such List is correct, and that there was not at the date so fixed as aforesaid any debt or claim, which, if that date were the commencement of the winding-up of the Company, would be admissible in proof against the Company, except the debts set forth in such List, and shall state his means of knowledge of the matters deposed to in such Affidavit. Such affidavit may be in the Form No. 3 in the Schedule hereto, with such variations as the circumstances of the case may require.

8. Copies of such List shall be kept at the Registered Office of the Company, and at the Offices of their Solicitors and London Agents (if any), and any person desirous of inspecting the same may at any time, during the ordinary hours of business, inspect and take extracts from the same on payment of the sum of one shilling.

9. The Company shall, within seven days after the filing of such Affidavit, or such further time as the Judge may allow, send to each Creditor whose name is entered in the said List, a notice stating the amount of the proposed reduction of Capital, and the amount of the debt for which such Creditor is entered in the said List, and the time (such time to be fixed by the Judge) within which, if he claims to be a Creditor for a larger amount, he must send in his name and address, and the particulars of his debt or claim, and the name and address of his Solicitor (if any) to the Solicitor of the Company ; and such notice shall be sent through the post in a pre-paid letter addressed to each Creditor at his last known address or place of abode, and may be in the Form or to the effect of the Form No. 4, set forth in the Schedule hereto, with such variations as the circumstances of the case may require.

10. Notice of the List of Creditors shall, after the filing of the Affidavit mentioned in the 6th of these Rules, be published at such times, and in such newspapers, as the Judge shall direct. Every such notice shall state the amount of the proposed reduction of Capital, and the places where the aforesaid List of Creditors may be inspected, and the time within which Creditors of the Company who are not entered on the said List, and are desirous of being entered therein, must send in their names and addresses, and the particulars of their debts or claims, and the names and addresses of their Solicitors (if any) to the Solicitor of the Company ; and such notice may be in the Form No. 5, set forth in the said Schedule hereto, with such variations as the circumstances of the case may require.

11. The Company shall, within such time as the Judge shall direct, file in the Office of the Clerks of Records and Writs an Affidavit made by the person to whom the particulars of debts or claims are by such notices as are mentioned in the 9th and 10th Rules of this Order, required to be sent in, stating the result of such notices respectively, and verifying a List containing the names and addresses of the persons (if any), who shall have sent in the particulars of their debts or claims in pursuance of such notices respectively, and the amounts of such debts or claims, and some competent officer or officers of the Company shall join in such Affidavit, and shall in such List distinguish which (if any) of such debts and claims are wholly or as to any and what part thereof, admitted by the Company, and which (if any) of such debts and claims are wholly, or as to any and what part thereof, disputed by the Company. Such Affidavit may be in the Form No. 6 in the Schedule hereto, with such variations as the circumstances of the case may require; and such List, and an Office Copy of such Affidavit, shall, within such time as the Judge shall direct, be left at the Chambers of the Judge.

12. If any debt or claim, the particulars of which are so sent in, shall not be admitted by the Company at its full amount, then, and in every such case, unless the Company are willing to set apart and appropriate in such manner as the Judge shall direct the full amount of such debt or claim, the Company shall, if the Judge think fit so to direct, send to the creditor a notice that he is required to come in and prove such debt or claim, or such part thereof as is not admitted by the Company, by a day to be therein named, being not less than four clear days after such notice, and being the time appointed by the Judge for adjudicating upon such debts and claims, and such notice shall be sent in the manner mentioned in the 9th Rule of this Order, and may be in the Form No. 7, in the Schedule hereto, with such variations as the circumstances of the case may require.

13. Such Creditors as come in to prove their debts or claims in pursuance of any such notice as is mentioned in the 12th of these Rules, shall be allowed their costs of proof against the Company, and be answerable for costs, in the same manner as in the case of persons coming in to prove debts under a decree in a cause.

14. The result of the settlement of the list of Creditors shall be stated in a certificate by the Chief Clerk, and such certificate shall state what debts or claims (if any) have been disallowed, and shall distinguish the debts or claims the full amount of which the Company are willing to set apart and appropriate, and the debts or claims (if any) the amount of which has been fixed by inquiry and adjudication in manner provided by section 14 of the said Act, and the debts or claims (if any) the full amount of which is not admitted by the Company, nor such as the Company are willing to set apart and appropriate, and the amount of which has not been fixed by inquiry and adjudication as last aforesaid; and shall shew which of the Creditors have consented in writing to the proposed reduction, and of what debts or claims the payment has been secured in manner provided by the said 14th section.

15. After the expiration of eight clear days from the filing of such last mentioned Certificate, the Petition may be placed in the List of Petitions upon a note from the Chief Clerk to the Secretary of the Lord Chancellor or of the Master of the Rolls, as the case may be, stating that the Certificate has been filed and become binding.

16. Before the hearing of the Petition, notices stating the day on which the same is appointed to be heard shall be published at such times and in such newspapers as the Judge shall direct. Such notices may be in the Form No. 8, in the Schedule hereto, with such variations as the circumstances of the case may require.

17. Any Creditor settled on the said list whose debt or claim has not, before the hearing of the Petition, been discharged or determined, or been secured in manner provided by the 14th section of the said Act, and who has not, before the hearing, signed a consent to the proposed reduction of Capital, may, if he think fit, upon giving two clear days' notice to the Solicitor of the Company of his intention so to do, appear at the hearing of the Petition and oppose the application.

18. Where a Creditor who appears at the hearing under the last preceding rule, is a Creditor the full amount of whose debt or claim is not admitted by the Company, and the validity of such debt or claim has not been inquired into and adjudicated upon under section 14 of the said Act, the costs of and occasioned by his appearance shall be dealt with as to the Court shall seem just, but in all other cases a Creditor appearing under the last preceding rule shall be entitled to the costs of such appearance, unless the Court shall be of opinion that in the circumstances of the particular case his Costs ought not to be allowed.

19. When the Petition comes on to be heard, the Court may, if it shall so think fit, give such directions as may seem proper with reference to the securing in manner mentioned in section 14 of the said Act the payment of the debts or claims of any Creditors who do not consent to the proposed reduction ; and the further hearing of the Petition may, if the Court shall think fit, be adjourned for the purpose of allowing any steps to be taken with reference to the securing in manner aforesaid the payment of such debts or claims.

20. Where the Court makes an Order confirming a reduction, such Order shall give directions in what manner, and in what newspapers, and at what times, notice of the Registration of the Order and of such Minute as mentioned in the 15th section of "The Companies' Act, 1867," is to be published ; and shall fix the date until which the words "and reduced" are to be deemed part of the name of the Company as mentioned in the 10th section of the same Act.

FEEs.

21. Solicitors shall be entitled to charge and be allowed for duties performed under "The Companies' Act, 1867," the same Fees as they shall for the time being be entitled to charge and be allowed for the like duties performed under "The Companies' Act, 1862," unless the Court or Judge shall otherwise specially direct.

22. The same Fees of Court shall be paid in relation to proceedings in Chancery under "The Companies' Act, 1867," as shall for the time being be payable in relation to like proceedings in Chancery under "The Companies' Act, 1862," and shall be collected by Stamps in manner provided by the General Orders of the Court.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS.

23. The General Orders and practice of the Court, including the course of proceeding and practice in the Judges' Chambers, shall, in cases not provided for by "The Companies' Act, 1867," or these Rules, so far as such Orders and practice are applicable and not inconsistent with the said Act or with these Rules, apply to all proceedings in the Court of Chancery under the said Act.

24. The power of the Court and of the Judge sitting in Chambers to enlarge or abridge the time for doing any act or taking any proceeding, to adjourn or review any proceeding, and to give any direction as to the course of proceeding, shall be the same in proceedings under "The Companies' Act, 1867," as in proceedings under the ordinary jurisdiction of the Court.

25. This Order shall take effect and come into operation on the 15th day of April, 1868, and shall apply to all proceedings in Chancery under the said Act, whether commenced before or after that day, but every proceeding taken under the said Act before that day shall have the same validity as it would have had if this Order had not been made.

INTERPRETATION.

26. The general interpretation clause of the Consolidated General Orders shall be deemed to extend and apply to the Rules of this Order, and this Order shall be deemed a General Order of this Court.

ORDER OF COURT,

Thursday, the 29th day of April, 1869.

1. Every Scheme to be filed in the Court of Chancery pursuant to the Statute 31 & 32 Vict., Cap. 68, and every Declaration, Affidavit, Petition, Summons, Notice, or other proceeding relative thereto, shall be intituled in the matter of the Liquidation Act, 1868, and in the matter of the Debtor, Bankrupt, or Company, to whose Assets the same relates, and, if the same relates to the Assets of a Company which is being wound up under the Companies Act, 1862, and any Act amending the same, then such Scheme shall also be intituled in the matter of the Companies Act, 1862.

2. Every such Scheme shall be marked either with the words "Lord Chancellor," and the name of one of the Vice-Chancellors, or with the words "Master of the Rolls;" and the matter of such Scheme (unless removed by some Special Order of the Lord Chancellor or the Lords Justices) shall accordingly be attached to the Court of such Vice-Chancellor, or to the Court of the Master of the Rolls, as the case may be, in like manner, and for the same purposes, as Causes are attached to a particular Court.

3. Where such Scheme relates to Assets of a Company which is being wound up, under the Companies Act, 1862, and any Act amending the same, by the Court of Chancery or under the supervision of the Court of Chancery, the Scheme shall be marked so as to be attached to the Court of the Judge to whose Court the matter of such winding up is attached.

4. Every Scheme to be filed as aforesaid, shall be printed on paper of the same size and description and in the same style and manner as Bills in Chancery are required to be printed; and every fifth line of each page thereof shall be numbered.

5. Every such Scheme shall be filed in the Office of the Clerks of Records and Writs, and shall have indorsed thereon the name and address of the Solicitor and London Agent (if any) of the Liquidators, and also the address for service of such Solicitor in cases where an address for service is required by the General Orders of the Court.

6. At any time after the expiration of four days from the filing of any such Scheme, any person claiming to be interested as a Creditor or Contributory in the affairs of the Debtor, Bankrupt, or Company to whose Assets the Scheme relates, may, by a requisition in writing, delivered at the Office of the Solicitor of the Liquidators, or of his London Agent (if any), and stating the nature of the interest which such person claims, demand any number, not exceeding ten, of Printed Copies of the Scheme; and the Copies so required shall, within twenty-four hours after such demand, and on payment for each such Copy at the rate of one half-penny per folio, be delivered to the person so requiring the same, with a Certificate thereon by such Solicitor or his London Agent, that they are true Copies of the Scheme filed.

7. Except in cases where an Affidavit, verifying a List of Creditors, shall already have been filed, or a List of Creditors shall have been made out under the direction of the Court, the Liquidators, on the day on which the Scheme is filed, or within such further time as the Judge shall allow, shall file, in the Office of the Clerks of Records and Writs, an Affidavit made by some person competent to make the same, verifying a List containing the names and addresses of the Creditors, and the amounts due to them respectively, so far as the same can be ascertained, and leave the said List, and an Office Copy of such Affidavit, at the Chambers of the Judge.

8. Copies of the Scheme, and copies of the List of Creditors, containing the total amount due to them, but omitting the amounts due to them respectively, or (if the Judge shall so direct), complete copies of such List, shall be kept at the Offices of the Solicitor of the Liquidators and his London Agent (if any); and any person claiming to be interested as Creditor or Contributory, may, at any time during the ordinary hours of business, inspect and take extracts from such Scheme and Copy List on payment of the sum of one shilling.

9. The Liquidators shall, within seven days after the filing of the Scheme, or within such further time as the Judge may allow, send to each Creditor whose name is entered in the said List, or to such of them as the Judge shall think fit, and in cases of winding-up, to such of the Contributories as the Judge shall think fit, a Notice of the filing of the Scheme. Such Notice shall state the time when the Scheme was filed, and the place or places where the Scheme may be inspected, and copies thereof obtained; and shall be sent through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to each of the persons to whom the same is to be sent at his last known address or place of abode.

10. Notice of the filing of the Scheme may also, if the Judge shall think fit, after the filing thereof, be published at such times and in such Newspapers as the Judge shall direct. Every such Notice shall contain such particulars as are mentioned in the preceding Rule.

11. After the expiration of one calendar month from the filing of the Scheme, or at such earlier time as the Judge shall think fit, the Liquidators may present a Petition for confirmation of the Scheme. It shall not be necessary in such Petition to set forth the Scheme, but it shall be sufficient to refer thereto.

12. When any Petition to confirm any such Scheme is presented, the Liquidators shall apply to the Judge in Chambers to appoint the day on which the same is to come into the paper for hearing, such day not to be before the expiration of three weeks from the time of such application, and shall cause a notice of such presentation to be inserted in such two Newspapers as the Judge in Chambers shall direct. Such notice shall state the day on which the Scheme was filed, and the day on which the Petition was presented, and the day on which the same is directed to come into the paper for hearing, and the name and address of the Solicitor and London Agent (if any) of the Liquidators.

13. The Petition shall not come on to be heard until at least fourteen clear days after the first insertion of such notice as aforesaid. Such notice shall at least once in every entire week, reckoned from Sunday morning till Saturday evening, which shall have elapsed between the first insertion thereof, and the day on which such Petition is directed to come into the paper for hearing, be again inserted in such Newspapers as aforesaid, on such day or days as the Judge in Chambers shall direct.

14. Any Creditor, contributory, or other person whose rights or interests are affected by such Scheme, and who shall be desirous to be heard in opposition to the confirmation thereof, shall, at least two clear days before the day on which the Petition for confirmation is directed to come into the paper for hearing, enter an appearance in the Office of the Clerks of Records and Writs, and, in default of so doing, shall not be entitled to be heard, unless by the special leave of the Court.

15. Any person so entering an appearance, shall be deemed to have submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the Court as to payment of costs, and otherwise.

16. No Order for confirming a Scheme, whether with or without alteration or addition, shall be inrolled until the expiration of thirty days from the day of the same having been pronounced, exclusive of Vacations.

17. No caveat shall be entered to stay the inrolment of any Order for confirming a Scheme, with or without alterations or additions; but every such Order may be inrolled after the expiration of thirty days from the day of the same being pronounced, unless in the meantime a Petition for a Rehearing shall have been presented, and an Order for setting down such Petition obtained and served upon the liquidators, such thirty days to be exclusive of Vacations.

18. No Petition for a Rehearing, either before the same Judge or before the Lord Chancellor or the Lords Justices, of the case on which any Order confirming a Scheme, with or without alterations or additions, or Order refusing to confirm a Scheme, has been made, shall, unless by special leave of the Lord Chancellor or the Lords Justices, be presented after the expiration of thirty days, exclusive of Vacations, from the day on which such Order was pronounced, notwithstanding that such Order may not have been inrolled.

19. When an Order has been made for confirming a Scheme, with or without alterations or additions, no person who neither has entered an appearance as aforesaid, nor has by virtue of such special leave as aforesaid been heard in opposition to the confirmation of the Scheme, nor is the legal personal representative of a person who has entered an appearance or been heard in opposition as aforesaid, shall be at liberty to present a Petition for Rehearing before the same Judge, or before the Lord Chancellor or the Lords Justices, unless the Lord Chancellor or the Lords Justices shall, by Special Order, to be applied for by motion on notice to the Liquidators, to be served on their Solicitor or London Agent, give leave to such person to present a Petition for a Rehearing.

20. All Orders made in Chambers under The Liquidation Act, 1868, shall be drawn up in Chambers unless specially directed to be drawn up by the Registrar, and shall be entered in the same manner and in the same Office as other Orders drawn up in Chambers.

21. In cases not expressly provided for by the said Act, or by the Rules of this Order, the General Orders and Practice of the Court (including the course of proceeding and practice in the Judges' Chambers, and the course of proceeding and practice as to Rehearings before the same Judge, or before the Lord Chancellor or Lords Justices), shall, as far as such General Orders and Practice are applicable and not inconsistent with the said Act or this Order, apply to all proceedings in the Court of Chancery under the said Act.

22. The power of the Court and of the Judge in Chambers to enlarge or abridge the time for doing any act or taking any proceeding, to adjourn or review any proceeding, and to give any directions as to the course of proceeding, shall be the same in proceedings in Chancery under the said Act, as in proceedings under the ordinary jurisdiction of the Court.

23. Solicitors shall be entitled to charge, and be allowed for all duties performed under The Liquidation Act, 1868, such of the Fees on the higher Scale, authorized by the 2nd Rule of the 38th of the Consolidated Orders and the Regulations as to Solicitors' Fees subjoined thereto as are applicable, unless the Court or Judge shall otherwise specially direct.

24. The Fees of Court set forth or referred to in the Schedule hereto, shall be paid in relation to proceedings in Chancery under the said Act, and shall be collected by means of Stamps in manner provided by the General Orders of the Court.

25. This Order shall come into operation on the 1st day of May, 1869.

26. The General Interpretation Clause in the Consolidated General Orders, shall apply to the Rules of this Order; and in this Order the term "Liquidators" has the same meaning as in The Liquidation Act, 1868, and the word "Contributory" has the same meaning as in The Companies Act, 1862.

2. The 3rd Rule of the 29th of the Consolidated General Orders is hereby abrogated.

3. Where any person is by a Decree or Order made in any Suit or Matter directed to pay money or costs in a limited time, and, after due service of such Decree or Order, refuses or neglects to make such payment according to the exigency of such Decree or Order, the person prosecuting such Decree or Order shall, at the expiration of the time limited for such payment, be entitled to a Commission of Sequestration, which may be issued by the Clerks of Records and Writs, without any special Order, upon production of evidence to the same effect as that which would heretofore have been required on issuing a Writ of Attachment for default in making such payment.

Writ or Writs of Attachment, the person prosecuting such Decree or Order shall be entitled at his option, either to a Commission of Sequestration in the first instance, or otherwise to an Order for the Serjeant-at-Arms, and to such other process as he was formerly entitled to upon a return non est inventus made by the Commissioners named in a Commission of Rebellion issued for the non-performance of a Decree or Order.

7. Where, by any Decree or Order, a trustee or person acting in a fiduciary capacity is ordered to pay in a limited time any sum of money in his possession or under his control, or a solicitor is ordered to pay in a limited time costs for misconduct as such solicitor, or to pay in a limited time a sum of money in his character of an officer of the Court, and such trustee, person, or solicitor, after due service of such Decree or Order, neglects or refuses to pay such money or costs according to the exigency of such Decree or Order, the person prosecuting such Decree or Order shall, at the expiration of the time limited thereby for the performance thereof, be entitled at his option either to a Commission of Sequestration to be obtained in manner provided by the 3rd Rule of this Order, or (subject nevertheless as mentioned in Rule 9) to the remedies to which under the 6th Rule of this Order he would have been entitled in the case of failure to do some act directed by the Decree or Order other than payment of money.

8. Where, by any Decree or Order, a solicitor is ordered to pay costs for misconduct as such solicitor, without a time being limited for such payment, and does not, upon due service of a subpoena for such costs, make such payment, the person to whom such costs are payable shall, immediately upon such default, be entitled, at his option, either to a Commission of Sequestration to be obtained in manner provided by the 5th Rule of this Order, or (subject nevertheless as mentioned in the next following Rule,) to a Writ or Writs of Attachment and such other process as has heretofore been applicable in case of non-payment of costs recoverable by subpoena.

9. Any Decree or Order directing any such trustee person or solicitor as mentioned in the last two preceding Rules to make any such payment as in the same Rules mentioned, shall state that such payment may be enforced by attachment, and unless the Decree or Order contains such statement, no attachment shall be issued for enforcing such payment without leave of the Court or the Judge in Chambers, to be applied for by motion or summons, which application may be granted ex parte, upon the Court or Judge being satisfied that the case comes within the exceptions contained in the 4th section of "The Debtors Act, 1869," unless the Court or Judge thinks fit to require notice of such application to be served.

III.—COMMITTAL TO PRISON, UNDER SECT. 5 OF
"THE DEBTORS ACT, 1869."

10. Every application to commit to prison under the 5th section of "The Debtors Act, 1869," shall be made by motion on notice, and the practice applicable to motions to commit for breach of an injunction shall, so far as the same is not inconsistent with the said Act or with anything in these Rules, be applicable to such applications.

11. The Court, upon the hearing of any such application, may, if it shall see fit so to do, instead of refusing or granting the application, adjourn the same, and either give leave to adduce further evidence, or direct an inquiry in Chambers, as to the means of the person making default, or require the production and oral examination before itself of the person making default and any persons who have given evidence against or in support of the application, or of such of them as the Court may think fit, in the same manner as such production and oral examination might be required at the hearing of a cause.

12. In case any such inquiry as aforesaid shall be directed, the general course of proceeding and practice at the Judge's Chambers, as provided by Statute 15 & 16 Victoria, c. 80, and the General Orders of the Court relative thereto, shall apply to all proceedings under such inquiry.

13. The Court, in making an Order for committal to prison under the said 5th section, may either make such imprisonment determinable on payment of the whole sum in respect of which the person to be imprisoned is in default, together with such costs as the Court shall think fit, or may order the debt to be paid by such instalments as the Court shall think fit, and make the imprisonment determinable on payment of such costs, and such of the said instalments as the Court shall think fit, and in either of such cases the Court, if it shall think fit, may direct payment of a sum in gross in lieu of taxed costs.

14. No application made under the said 5th section, nor any Order made thereon, shall in any manner vary or suspend any of the remedies which the person prosecuting the Decree or Order which has been disobeyed, would, if no such application had been made, have been entitled to against the property of the person disobeying the same Decree or Order, but the person prosecuting such Decree or Order may proceed to avail himself of such remedies without any regard to such application, or to any Order made thereon, except so far as by consent, he may, by such last-mentioned Order, be expressly restrained from availing himself of such remedies.

15. Orders of committal may be in the form A. 1, or A. 2, in the Schedule hereto, as the case may be, with such variations as the circumstances of the case may require, and an office copy of each such Order shall be delivered to the Sheriff or other Officer required to execute the same. Office copies of any such Order may be delivered concurrently to different Sheriffs for execution in different counties. Every such office copy as aforesaid shall be indorsed by the Clerks of Records and Writs, with the direction of the Sheriff or other Officer by whom the same is to be executed. The Sheriff and Officer shall be entitled to the same fees in respect of an Order of Committal, as are now payable upon a writ of capias ad satisfaciendum, issued out of Her Majesty's Courts of Common Law.

16. The Sheriff or other Officer to whom an Order of Committal is directed as aforesaid, shall, within two days after the arrest, indorse upon the office copy of the Order delivered to him the true date of such arrest, and return the same so indorsed to the Solicitor of the person prosecuting the Decree or Order, or to such person himself, if he acts in person.

17. Upon payment of the sum or sums in that behalf mentioned in the Order of Committal, including the Sheriff's fees, and the costs or gross sum in lieu of costs made payable by the Order, the person committed shall be entitled to a Certificate in the form B. in the Schedule hereto, or to the like effect, signed by the Solicitor of the person prosecuting the Decree or Order which has been disobeyed, or if such person be acting in person, then signed by him, and attested by a Solicitor or Justice of the Peace.

18. In case any Order is made under the 5th section of the said Act for payment of a sum of money by instalments, and the person imprisoned shall, after his discharge from prison, neglect or refuse to pay the subsequent instalments, or any of them, the person prosecuting the Decree or Order for disobedience to which the committal was ordered, shall, in addition to his remedies against the property of the person making default, be entitled to enforce payment of such subsequent instalments by attachment, as in the case of disobedience to an Order directing the performance of some act other than payment of money.

IV.—MISCELLANEOUS.

19. The general practice of the Court shall, in all cases not provided for by "the Debtors Act, 1869," or these Rules, and so far as the same is applicable, and not inconsistent with the said Act or these Rules, apply to all proceedings under the 4th and 5th sections of the said Act.

20. The charges to be allowed to Solicitors for duties performed in respect of such proceedings as last aforesaid, and the fees of Court in respect of the same proceedings, shall be the same as those allowable and payable in respect of other proceedings of the same nature in the causes or matters in which such proceedings respectively are taken.

21. This Order shall be read and construed as part of the General Consolidated Orders of the Court, and the interpretation clause in the same Consolidated General Orders contained shall apply to the Rules of this Order.

22. This Order shall come into operation on the 11th day of January, 1870.
